NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE city of Richmond, Va., celebrated Christmas with a brilliant display of fireworks. They had been bought to be used after Cleveland's election, but the management concluded that it would be useless to keep them longer.

FRANK J. MYERS attempted to close an iron shutter in a restaurant at Toledo yesterday, and was struck dead. The shutter on being moved came in contact with a poorly insulated electric light wire. Tragedies of this variety are much too frequent.

EVEN on Christmas day Mr. Cleveland had no callers at the White House, and he and his wife ate their dinner alone. All the members of the Cabinet were equally lonesome except Mr. Endicott, who spent the day at his home in Salem, Massachusetts.

COLUMBUS DELANO of Ohio, President of the National Wool Growers Association, has called a meeting of the representative wool growers of the United States to be held in Washington January 10th. He says the wool schedule in the Senate bill fails to afford adequate protection to the industry.

THE Utica Morning Herald takes Judge Parker severely to task for his statement to a Tribune correspondent in reference to the use of money in Ulster county elections. It quotes THE FREEMAN'S denial of the bribery story, and criticises Judge Parker unsparingly.

THE Methodist clergymen of Columbus, Ohio, have declared against the inauguration ball as a "relic of barbarism," and chosen the election of a Christian man to the Presidency as a fitting occasion for condemning "the tendencies to imitate the follies, displays, pageantry and extravagance of European courts." They think that $100,000 is too big a price to pay for such folly.

EX-SENATOR ARKELL proposes to disfranchise the voter who is found guilty of accepting a bribe. This looks like another scheme for breaking up the Democratic party. Unless nine-tenths of the Democratic accusations of the use of money at elections are lies, then that party has been compelled to buy up its own voters. They deserve to be disfranchised of course. But then, where would Democratic votes come from?

A FARMER named Hobbs was shot dead in the door of his house at Birdseye, Ind., last Saturday night, by White Caps, because he had gathered testimony against the order and urged their prosecution. Several murders of this kind have occured in the state, but no efficient measures for the punishment and suppression of the criminals have been adopted. The difference between the methods of Gov. Foraker and Gov. Gray in dealing with the White Caps is characteristic of the general difference of efficiency between Republican and Democratic administrations.

THE steamer Haytien Republic was very willingly given up by the Haytien authorities on the appearance of the American men-of-war off Port au Prince. A polite telegram from Mr. Bayard would have accomplished the same result and saved quite an item of expense. But then the opportunity to bully a power of about the same size of Bayard himself would have been missed. The war record of the administration now embraces Mexico, Morocco and Hayti. There is yet time to send an expedition against Monaco.

DEMOCRATS who are to be thrust out of office by Cleveland's defeat, as well as hundreds who have been kept out in the cold, are turning to Gov. Hill for consolation. He has within his appointment during the coming year, subject of course to confirmation by the Senate, about 28 pretty fat offices. The best of these, Health Officer of New York, pays a salary of $10,000. Then there is one of $7,500, one of $7,000, two of $6,000, one of $5,000, one of $4,000, one of $3,500, two of $3,000, fifteen of $2,500 and others less value. But these will not go around. There is a "heap of trouble" awaiting the Governor during the coming session of the Legislature.

MRS. ANNA KELLY brought her dead baby to a New York police station early Christmas morning, explaining that it had died of hunger and cold in the doorway of a tenement house where the parents had crept for shelter. Kelly and his wife, who had been in the United States six months, had sought for work everywhere and been repulsed, and even the various Catholic missions for charity had turned them away. Father Kelly of the Mission of the Holy Rosary, told them that he could do nothing for them, and informed them that they had no right to bring children into the world when they were unable to care for them. So the baby died on Christmas. "Alas for the rarity of Christian charity."

"JONES of Binghamton," whose recent election proved him a more popular gentleman than Gov. Hill, will be the first man since 1839 to hold the office of Lieutenant Governor for six years. John Tracy was elected on the ticket with Gov. Marcy for three successive terms of two years each. The longest service in the office since was that of William Dorsheimer, who was chosen to a two years' terms with Gov. Tilden and re-elected to a three years term with Governor Robinson. The early Lieutenant Governors served longer. Pierre Van Cortlandt held the office during George Clinton's long service of eighteen years as the first Governor under the constitution; John Broome was Lieutenant-Governor from 1804 till his death in 1811, and John Taylor from 1818 to 1823, serving as Governor from the advancement of Gov. Tompkins to the Vice Presidency in March, 1817, till the election of DeWitt Clinton in the following July. If Jones's popularity shall increase sufficiently to bring him the nomination and election to the Governorship in 1891, Mr. Hill will not be the candidate of his party for President.

EXPLOSION IN A TAP MILL.

Tap Cinder Exploded When it Came in Contact With Water, this Morning, in W. Va.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Dec. 26.—This town was visited by a conflagration last night that devoured the entire business portion of the town, covering about 12 acres. The fire was first discovered in the house furnishings store of D. B. H. Powers, on Pleasant-street, at about 10 o'clock. The exact cause of the fire is unknown. The first warning was given by a loud explosion of naphtha in the store. The alarm was quickly rung in and immediately followed by a second and third. When the firemen reached the burning building it fell with a mighty crash. It was a wooden structure and was rapidly consumed. The firemen did their best to hold the flames in check, but their efforts amounted to nothing. The buildings surrounding the structure were mere shells, and it seemed as if a fire started wherever a spark fell. In 15 minutes from the time the first alarm was given the entire business portion was a sea of flame. The fire raged fiercely, and the two fire companies were wholly unable to execute the task they were called upon to perform. Assistance was summoned from Lynn, Salem and Swampscott, and these towns quickly responded. The entire shoe manufacturing district, the principal business section of the town, was burned to the ground. Fully 60 buildings were consumed. The people were frantic, and rushed to and fro as though crazed. The flames spread with such rapidity that scarcely anything was saved. The tenents residing in the dwelling-houses were completely cleaned out, and as they stood watching their homes burn they presented a pitiable sight. It looked at one time as though the entire place was doomed. At this time help from Salem, Lynn and Swampscott arrived and put new life into the cheerless workers. The City was flooded with strangers from all of the surrounding towns. On Pleasant-street the dwelling houses of Nathan Pitman, Asa Blaney, the Boston & Maine depot, Cole Brothers' shoe factory, the horse car station, Stacey's drug store, Jonathan Bourne's woolen factory, a large structure four stories high, and numerous small buildings were reduced to ashes. On the opposite side Joseph Lefavre's dwelling house, H. O. Symonds hardware store, the Grand Army Hall and the Fire Department headquarters, a magnificent brick building, the Rialto block, C. Gregory's drug store, the Boston branch grocery store and the dry goods store of George Graves were destroyed. On Essex-street the flames destroyed Allerton Hall and the immense wooden factory of E. H. Woodbury, shoe manufacturer. Allerton Hall is occupied as a shoe factory by Jonathan Orne. The factory of Jacob H. Cropley & Bro. on Essex street, Peace's shoe factory and the houses of Dennis and Jacob Pipe were reduced to smouldering ruins. On Spring-street the fire swept on destroying the residences and a factory of W. C. Lafavre. Its progress was checked at the Sewell Grammar School building. Sweeping across Spring-street the flames consumed the handsome dwelling of Dr. Whittemore. Here the flames changed their course, and sweeping on to Sewell-street it completely destroyed everything in the rear of Pleasant-street, taking everything clean up on both sides of the railroad tracks. The residences of Mr. Chamberlain and the late Thomas F. Crossman, Paine's livery stables, Thomas Rix's fruit stand and numerous small buildings were burned to the ground. At 3 o'clock the fire was under control though yet burning fiercely. This stolid old burg, in June, 1877, was visited by a fire which swept over nearly the same district. During the progress of the present fire several explosions were heard. Fully 1,000 workmen are thrown out of employment. The number of buildings consumed is between 50 and 60.

The loss by the fire of last night is estimated at $800,000. Many families are temporarily homeless. Thirty-seven structures in all were destroyed, including manufactories, prominent blocks and business houses. Thirteen of these were dwellings, 12 shoe factories and 12 miscellaneous. Had it not been for prompt assistance from other towns the loss would have been much greater. For a while there was a panic among the inhabitants, who packed up their household goods in anticipation of the destruction of the town. The fire could be seen for miles. So quickly did the flames spread that whole blocks were ruined in less than 15 minutes, and the heat was intense. Between eight and nine acres were burned over. It is strange that no lives were lost as the streets were thronged with people in and around the burned district.

Charles Choate, who broke a leg by jumping from a second-story window, was the only person injured. The heat was so great that curbstones cracked and crumbled, car rails were twisted out of shape, tall chimneys fell with terrific crashes and boilers exploded with the force of cannon. The water supply was inadequte, and at times some of the steamers were unable to perform effective work. None of the manufacturers think it possible to rebuild this winter, and there is a general feeling of depression. Some of the losses, as stated by the victims themselves, are as follows: F. W. & J. W. Monroe, building $25,000, machinery, $15,000, stock, $40,000, well insured; J. M. Cropley, on stock and machinery, $80,000, insurance, $50,000; B. E. Cole, $100,000; C. A. Slee, $1,800; J. H. Orne $15,000, insurance, $10,000; B. H. Howe, branch grocery, $6,000, insurance, $3,000; Bridges & Carroll, $10,000, insurance $5,000; Caswell & Shattuck $1,500, insurance $900; Rachabite Hall $12,000, insurance $8,000. The charter of Philanthropic Lodge of Free Masons, next to the oldest in the State, was burned.

Accidents Reported at Points West—Panic in a Church at Geneva, Etc.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Three fatalities and a number of minor casualities resulting from accidents at Christmas festivities in this vicinity are reported.

At Geneva John M. Stillwell was impersonating Santa Claus at a church festival. His costume caught fire from a candle and Stillwell was fatally burned. There was a panic in the church, several women and children being badly bruised.

At Danville T. W. Smith dressed himself as Santa Claus making a liberal use of cotton batting, and then set to work to light a Christmas tree. The cotton took fire and Smith was horribly burned.

At Milwaukee Mrs. Leidel went to a store, leaving her children in bed. Her four year old boy got out of bed and started to light the candles on the Christmas tree, which he had seen illuminated the night before. His night dress took fire and he ran back to bed with his clothes burning. The bed clothes took fire and burned rapidly. The mother came home in time to rescue another child which was asleep in the bed. The little boy died shortly afterward.

Row at a Colored Ball.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Dec. 26.—Spencer Bryant, colored, was killed last night at a colored ball by Joseph Caxton, also colored. Dancing was going on, when a pistol shot was heard and then another.. A man who was standing next to Bryant says he heard no quarreling, and the first he knew of the matter was hearing the shot and seeing Caxton holding Bryant by the collar and using the pistol. The victim died instantly. Caxton was captured. He says he was attacked suddenly by several men at the ball, and fired the pistol in self-defense.

They were Professional Shop-lifters.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BUFFALO, Dec. 26.—A detective left for Albany this morning to obtain a requisition from Governor Hill for the two women arrested at Cleveland, last week, on a charge of stealing a diamond bracelet, valued at $400, at the store of T. & E. Dickinson, in this City. The prisoners gave their names as Catherine Powers and Caroline Smith, but have been identified as two professional shoplifters, known as Ann Riley and "Little Louise," of New-York.

Shot in a Drunken Row.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

HARRODSBURGH, Ky., Dec. 26.—Joshua Briscoe, colored, got into a drunken row yesterday and policemen Smith and Waggonen attempted to arrest him. Briscoe resisted and his colored mistress attacked the officers also. Briscoe broke loose and was trying to fire a gun at the officers when Waggonen shot him through the heart. A Coroner's jury returned a verdict justifying the killing.

A Trade Crisis in England.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—A crisis appears to be imminent in the Bolton Cotton trade. Numbers of employes are already on strike and refuse to return to work until their demands are complied with. The masters complain of bad work and threaten to order a general lockout unless the work is improved and the strikers return to work. The operatives are amply supplied with funds and defy the masters.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 26.—The stock market opened this morning with a very active business and first prices were all up from Monday's close ¼ and ½ per cent. The Vanderbilts were the strong feature of the dealings and Lake Shore was specially conspicuous by reason of the strength displayed, rising 1 per cent. on an usually large business. Big four also rose a like amount. The market exhibited no special feature, but remained active without further change of importance.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE city of Richmond, Va., celebrated Christmas with a brilliant display of fireworks. They had been bought to be used after Cleveland's election, but the management concluded that it would be useless to keep them longer.

FRANK J. MYERS attempted to close an iron shutter in a restaurant at Toledo yesterday, and was struck dead. The shutter on being moved came in contact with a poorly insulated electric light wire. Tragedies of this variety are much too frequent.

EVEN on Christmas day Mr. Cleveland had no callers at the White House, and he and his wife ate their dinner alone. All the members of the Cabinet were equally lonesome except Mr. Endicott, who spent the day at his home in Salem, Massachusetts.

COLUMBUS DELANO of Ohio, President of the National Wool Growers Association, has called a meeting of the representative wool growers of the United States to be held in Washington January 10th. He says the wool schedule in the Senate bill fails to afford adequate protection to the industry.

THE Utica Morning Herald takes Judge Parker severely to task for his statement to a Tribune correspondent in reference to the use of money in Ulster county elections. It quotes THE FREEMAN'S denial of the bribery story, and criticises Judge Parker unsparingly.

THE Methodist clergymen of Columbus, Ohio, have declared against the inauguration ball as a "relic of barbarism," and chosen the election of a Christian man to the Presidency as a fitting occasion for condemning "the tendencies to imitate the follies, displays, pageantry and extravagance of European courts." They think that $100,000 is too big a price to pay for such folly.

EX-SENATOR ARKELL proposes to disfranchise the voter who is found guilty of accepting a bribe. This looks like another scheme for breaking up the Democratic party. Unless nine-tenths of the Democratic accusations of the use of money at elections are lies, then that party has been compelled to buy up its own voters. They deserve to be disfranchised of course. But then, where would Democratic votes come from?

A FARMER named Hobbs was shot dead in the door of his house at Birdseye, Ind., last Saturday night, by White Caps, because he had gathered testimony against the order and urged their prosecution. Several murders of this kind have occured in the state, but no efficient measures for the punishment and suppression of the criminals have been adopted. The difference between the methods of Gov. Foraker and Gov. Gray in dealing with the White Caps is characteristic of the general difference of efficiency between Republican and Democratic administrations.

THE steamer Haytien Republic was very willingly given up by the Haytien authorities on the appearance of the American men-of-war off Port au Prince. A polite telegram from Mr. Bayard would have accomplished the same result and saved quite an item of expense. But then the opportunity to bully a power of about the same size of Bayard himself would have been missed. The war record of the administration now embraces Mexico, Morocco and Hayti. There is yet time to send an expedition against Monaco.

DEMOCRATS who are to be thrust out of office by Cleveland's defeat, as well as hundreds who have been kept out in the cold, are turning to Gov. Hill for consolation. He has within his appointment during the coming year, subject of course to confirmation by the Senate, about 28 pretty fat offices. The best of these, Health Officer of New York, pays a salary of $10,000. Then there is one of $7,500, one of $7,000, two of $5,000, one of $4,000, one of $3,500, two of $3,000, fifteen of $2,500 and others less value. But these will not go around. There is a "heap of trouble" awaiting the Governor during the coming session of the Legislature.

MRS. ANNA KELLY brought her dead baby to a New York police station early Christmas morning, explaining that it had died of hunger and cold in the doorway of a tenement house where the parents had crept for shelter. Kelly and his wife, who had been in the United States six months, had sought for work everywhere and been repulsed, and even the various Catholic missions for charity had turned them away. Father Kelly of the Mission of the Holy Rosary, told them that he could do nothing for them, and informed them that they had no right to bring children into the world when they were unable to care for them. So the baby died on Christmas. "Alas for the rarity of Christian charity."

"JONES of Binghamton," whose recent election proved him a more popular gentleman than Gov. Hill, will be the first man since 1839 to hold the office of Lieutenant Governor for six years. John Tracy was elected on the ticket with Gov. Marcy for three successive terms of two years each. The longest service in the office since was that of William Dorsheimer, who was chosen to a two years' terms with Gov. Tilden and re-elected to a three years term with Governor Robinson. The early Lieutenant Governors served longer. Pierre Van Cortlandt held the office during George Clinton's long service of eighteen years as the first Governor under the constitution; John Broome was Lieutenant-Governor from 1804 till his death in 1811, and John Taylor from 1818 to 1823, serving as Governor from the advancement of Gov. Tompkins to the Vice Presidency in March, 1817, till the election of DeWitt Clinton in the following July. If Jones's popularity shall increase sufficiently to bring him the nomination and election to the Governorship in 1891, Mr. Hill will not be the candidate of his party for President.

EXPLOSION IN A TAP MILL.

Tap Cinder Exploded When it Came in Contact With Water, this Morning, in W. Va.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Dec. 26.—This town was visited by a conflagration last night that devoured the entire business portion of the town, covering about 12 acres. The fire was first discovered in the house furnishings store of D. B. H. Powers, on Pleasant-street, at about 10 o'clock. The exact cause of the fire is unknown. The first warning was given by a loud explosion of naphtha in the store. The alarm was quickly rung in and immediately followed by a second and third. When the firemen reached the burning building it fell with a mighty crash. It was a wooden structure and was rapidly consumed. The firemen did their best to hold the flames in check, but their efforts amounted to nothing. The buildings surrounding the structure were mere shells, and it seemed as if a fire started wherever a spark fell. In 15 minutes from the time the first alarm was given the entire business portion was a sea of flame. The fire raged fiercely, and the two fire companies were wholly unable to execute the task they were called upon to perform. Assistance was summoned from Lynn, Salem and Swampscott, and these towns quickly responded. The entire shoe manufacturing district, the principal business section of the town, was burned to the ground. Fully 60 buildings were consumed. The people were frantic, and rushed to and fro as though crazed. The flames spread with such rapidity that scarcely anything was saved. The tenents residing in the dwelling-houses were completely cleaned out, and as they stood watching their homes burn they presented a pitiable sight. It looked at one time as though the entire place was doomed. At this time help from Salem, Lynn and Swampscott arrived and put new life into the cheerless workers. The City was flooded with strangers from all of the surrounding towns. On Pleasant-street the dwelling houses of Nathan Pitman, Asa Blaney, the Boston & Maine depot, Cole Brothers' shoe factory, the horse car station, Stacey's drug store, Jonathan Bourne's woolen factory, a large structure four stories high, and numerous small buildings were reduced to ashes. On the opposite side Joseph Lefavre's dwelling house, H. O. Symonds hardware store, the Grand Army Hall and the Fire Department headquarters, a magnificent brick building, the Rialto block, C. Gregory's drug store, the Boston branch grocery store and the dry goods store of George Graves were destroyed. On Essex-street the flames destroyed Allerton Hall and the immense wooden factory of E. H. Woodbury, shoe manufacturer. Allerton Hall is occupied as a shoe factory by Jonathan Orne. The factory of Jacob H. Cropley & Bro. on Essex-street, Peace's shoe factory and the houses of Dennis and Jacob Pire were reduced to smouldering ruins. On Spring-street the fire swept on destroying the residences and a factory of W. C. Lafavre. Its progress was checked at the Sewell Grammar School building. Sweeping across Spring-street the flames consumed the handsome dwelling of Dr. Whittemore. Here the flames changed their course, and sweeping on to Sewell-street it completely destroyed everything in the rear of Pleasant-street, taking everything clean up on both sides of the railroad tracks. The residences of Mr. Chamberlain and the late Thomas F. Crossman, Paine's livery stables, Thomas Rix's fruit stand and numerous small buildings were burned to the ground. At 3 o'clock the fire was under control though yet burning fiercely. This stolid old burg, in June, 1877, was visited by a fire which swept over nearly the same district. During the progress of the present fire several explosions were heard. Fully 1,000 workmen are thrown out of employment. The number of buildings consumed is between 50 and 60.

The loss by the fire of last night is estimated at $800,000. Many families are temporarily homeless. Thirty-seven structures in all were destroyed, including manufactories, prominent blocks and business houses. Thirteen of these were dwellings, 12 shoe factories and 12 miscellaneous. Had it not been for prompt assistance from other towns the loss would have been much greater. For a while there was a panic among the inhabitants, who packed up their household goods in anticipation of the destruction of the town. The fire could be seen for miles. So quickly did the flames spread that whole blocks were ruined in less than 15 minutes, and the heat was intense. Between eight and nine acres were burned over. It is strange that no lives were lost as the streets were thronged with people in and around the burned district.

Charles Choate, who broke a leg by jumping from a second-story window, was the only person injured. The heat was so great that curbstones cracked and crumbled, car rails were twisted out of shape, tall chimneys fell with terrific crashes and boilers exploded with the force of cannon. The water supply was inadequate, and at times some of the steamers were unable to perform effective work. None of the manufacturers think it possible to rebuild this winter, and there is a general feeling of depression. Some of the losses, as stated by the victims themselves, are as follows: F. W. & J. W. Monroe, building $25,000, machinery, $15,000, stock, $40,000, well insured; J. M. Cropley, on stock and machinery, $80,000, insurance, $50,000; B. E. Cole, $100,000; C. A. Slee, $1,800; J. H. Orne $15,000, insurance, $10,000; B. H. Howe, branch grocery, $6,000, insurance, $3,000; Bridges & Carroll, $10,000, insurance $5,000; Caswell & Shattuck $1,500, insurance $800; Rachabite Hall $12,000, insurance $8,000. The charter of Philanthropic Lodge of Free Masons, next to the oldest in the State, was burned.

Accidents Reported at Points West—Panic in a Church at Geneva, Etc.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Three fatalities and a number of minor casualities resulting from accidents at Christmas festivities in this vicinity are reported.

At Geneva John M. Stillwell was impersonating Santa Claus at a church festival. His costume caught fire from a candle and Stillwell was fatally burned. There was a panic in the church, several women and children being badly bruised.

At Danville T. W. Smith dressed himself as Santa Claus making a liberal use of cotton batting, and then set to work to light a Christmas tree. The cotton took fire and Smith was horribly burned.

At Milwaukee Mrs. Leidel went to a store, leaving her children in bed. Her four year old boy got out of bed and started to light the candles on the Christmas tree, which he had seen illuminated the night before. His night dress took fire and he ran back to bed with his clothes burning. The bed clothes took fire and burned rapidly. The mother came home in time to rescue another child which was asleep in the bed. The little boy died shortly afterward.

These members of the Northern Committee are in session to-day considering matters that will come up at Friday's meeting.

Row at a Colored Ball.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Dec. 26.—Spencer Bryant, colored, was killed last night at a colored ball by Joseph Caxton, also colored. Dancing was going on, when a pistol shot was heard and then another. A man who was standing next to Bryant says he heard no quarreling, and the first he knew of the matter was hearing the shot and seeing Caxton holding Bryant by the collar and using the pistol. The victim died instantly. Caxton was captured. He says he was attacked suddenly by several men at the ball, and fired the pistol in self-defense.

They were Professional Shop-lifters.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BUFFALO, Dec. 26.—A detective left for Albany this morning to obtain a requisition from Governor Hill for the two women arrested at Cleveland, last week, on a charge of stealing a diamond bracelet, valued at $400, at the store of T. & E. Dickinson, in this City. The prisoners gave their names as Catherine Powers and Caroline Smith, but have been identified as two professional shop-lifters, known as Ann Riley and "Little Louise," of New-York.

Shot in a Drunken Row.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

HARRODSBURGH, Ky., Dec. 26.—Joshua Briscoe, colored, got into a drunken row yesterday and policemen Smith and Waggonen attempted to arrest him. Briscoe resisted and his colored mistress attacked the officers also. Briscoe broke loose and was trying to fire a gun at the officers when Waggonen shot him through the heart. A Coroner's jury returned a verdict justifying the killing.

A Trade Crisis in England.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—A crisis appears to be imminent in the Bolton Cotton trade. Numbers of employes are already on strike and refuse to return to work until their demands are complied with. The masters complain of bad work and threaten to order a general lockout unless the work is improved and the strikers return to work. The operatives are amply supplied with funds and defy the masters.

A Charge of Larceny.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 26.—Herman S. Scheyer, commission merchant, made a charge of larceny, to-day, against his cousin, Adolph Wittstock, a clerk in his store, and had him locked up. Wittstock, who had been left in charge of the store while his employer went to Europe, stole over $3,000 worth of goods, which he converted into cash and spent the money.

Fatal Explosion at a Tap Mill.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 26.—By an explosion at a "Tap Mill" this morning, caused by tap cinder coming in contact with water, William Mears and Henry Newhaus were badly burned about the head and body, and William Miles was terribly burned on the face and body and both eyes were destroyed. He will probably die.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 26.—The stock market opened this morning with a very active business and first prices were all up from Monday's close ¼ and ½ per cent. The Vanderbilts were the strong feature of the dealings and Lake Shore was specially conspicuous by reason of the strength displayed, rising 1 per cent, on an usually large business. Big four also rose a like amount. The market exhibited no special feature, but remained active without further change of importance.

Burglaries have been unusually numerous at points along the Hudson River of late. The tramping season has begun. The plea is work, of course. The tramps are all waiting for a "job at the ice." Meanwhile they prowl about buildings and outhouses, seeking what they can carry away or destroy.

During the past fortnight the Ulster County Jail, in Kingston, has afforded sleeping accommodations for tramps who appear in large numbers every night requesting to be locked up.

MORE DEMOCRATIC EDUCATION.

The Executive Committee of the Associated Democratic Clubs of the United States has issued a manifesto in which an attempt is made to explain the Democratic defeat and to evolve therefrom a plan of campaign for 1892. It starts off with the assertion that "the workingmen stood firmly by the Democracy, as may be seen by a careful examination of the returns from manufacturing centres." Now this is an infamous lie, a libel upon the intelligent workingmen of the country. The manufacturing centres, meaning the cities that decided the election, with very few exceptions increased their Republican vote. This was the case in St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Pittsburg and Brooklyn. With the exception of New York, where the slum vote grows more rapidly than that of the workingmen, and Albany, which is not a manufacturing but a political city, the cities of this state gave Harrison a larger vote than Blaine, and virtually decided the election. The Democratic assertion has for its foundation only New York, already mentioned, and Philadelphia, where Mr. Blaine had a personal strength that can probably never be equaled by any other candidate. The Republican party cannot afford to let this falsehood to go unrebuked. It owes a duty the faithful and intelligent workingmen who came over to the Republican party by thousands and made victory easy and sure.

The committee discovers that the admission of the territories into the Union and the change of representation consequent upon the census of 1890 will "broaden the contest," but it proposes to fight the battle from Maine to California on the same lines as those of 1888. Here is its assertion of principles:

To preserve the Constitution of the United States, the autonomy of the states, local self-government and freedom of elections; to resist revolutionary changes and the centralization of power; to oppose the imposition of taxes beyond the necessities of government economically administered; to promote economy in all branches of the public service; to oppose unnecessary commercial restrictions for the benefit of the few at the expense of the many; to oppose class legislation, which despoils labor and builds up monopoly; and to maintain inviolate the fundamental principle of Democratic equality before the law.

It further proposes to strike down the two arms of monopoly—"bribery and corruption." It adds the rather trite lamentation that the defeat of its party was due to "Republican misrepresentation and the effect of enormous sums of money handled by the most corrupt and efficient partisan organization ever known in this country." This charge of corruption against the Republican party will make the people smile. It comes from a party whose representative politicians crowd the prison of almost every Northern state, which has made a most contemptible fizzle of its only attempt—the one just come to an end in Indiana—to convict a Republican of bribery, and whose only President elected in 28 years was forced to go to these same prisons to find enough Democrats to fill the offices.

The club gives notice that it is going to begin an educational campaign among the farmers. The accusation that it makes against the workingmen, of standing by the Democratic party, it has not the audacity to repeat against the tillers of the soil. Well, let the enlightening process proceed. We shall see what will come of it—what impression the political bummers of the country, the men who toil not neither do they spin, whose sole hope in life is the acquisition of a fat office, are able to make upon the men who till the soil, guide our factories and commerce, build our railroads, and put into activity the capital and genius that double the nation's wealth and greatness once in every twenty-five years. The end, we believe, will show that the Democratic party stands most in need of education, and that it made a great mistake in not accepting the lesson of 1888 as the deliberate verdict of a people who know what they are doing.

SOME SOUTHERN REPUBLICANS.

The Democratic party at the North affects to believe that there is no good Republican Cabinet timber at the South. But prominent Democrats of that section have undertaken to assist Gen. Harrison in making a selection and are prepared to vouch for the high character and entire fitness of a sufficient number of men to stock several Cabinets without any assistance from the North. Senator Vance, after remarking that the late Judge Settle was the ablest Republican in North Carolina, asserted that H. S. F. Phillips, ex-Solicitor General, would pre-eminently grace a Cabinet seat. Equally complimentary remarks were made by Senator Jones of Arkansas respecting Powell Clayton and United States Judge Caldwell; while Senator Colquitt mentioned A. E. Buck, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Georgia; Senator Harris mentioned District Attorney Murray and Samuel Watson of Tennessee; Congressman Oates named ex-Chief Justice Rice and Gen. Willard Warner of Alabama; Representative Tillman named Samuel Melton of South Carolina; Representative Shaw mentioned Congressman McComas and Editor Agnus of Maryland, while Judges McCormick and Bell of Texas were named by different Representatives from that state.

These do not include all the well known and respected Republicans of the South. It has occasionally looked as if Gen. Henderson of Missouri, Wm. O. Bradley of Kentucky and Gen. Goff of West Virginia stood nearer to a Cabinet position than any of them, to say nothing of the universally admitted ability of Gen. Mahone of Virginia. Gen. Benjamin Harrison of Indiana will make the final selection. We do not doubt that he will give some sort of recognition to the South. And it is infinitely more important that he recognize the right of the party which these men lead to cast a free vote and have that vote honestly counted than it is to place the ablest of their number in his official family.

KICKING THE MAN WHO IS DOWN.

The Tribune's London correspondent sends the news that there will be no minister to the United States appointed in Sackville's place till after Harrison's inauguration. This is intended as a rebuke to Mr. Cleveland for his scandalous treatment of the late minister, Cleveland is given to understand that he is being insulted and snubbed. The correspondent complains of the President's indifference. It is his duty to recall Mr. Phelps at once, but there is no sign that this is to be done. Phelps remains to bear in his person the insult intended for his superior.

Salisbury will not gain the respect of the American people by his contemptuous way of kicking a man when he is down. Nothing is better known on this side of the Atlantic than that the Sackville dismissal was conducted with great regard for Salisbury's feelings; that it did not take place until he had become convinced that it was necessary as a part of the Democratic campaign, had given his full consent. Mr. Cleveland would undoubtedly have fared better at the polls if he had given Sackville his passports on the day that the Murchison letter appeared, and provoked Salisbury to indignant remonstrance and a threat of war even if it had been feigned. Mr. Cleveland does not deserve the unkind treatment that he is receiving from the government of the "mother country." And he would not receive it if he were going to remain in office four years more. It is the shallow expedient of a shallow Briton to curry favor with the next administration.

Undoubtedly a due respect for the dignity of the American nation would require the recall of Minister Phelps, who of necessity is out of favor with the British government and denied the official recognition which is due to his position; but not much need be expected of the President during the rest of his term except the performance of the routine duties of his office. He is too unhappy over his defeat to feel that keen interest in public affairs that he manifested before the election. If he were actually endeavoring to show himself of no account, a mere dummy in office, he could not succeed better in that direction than he is doing. The Chicago Tribune's Washington correspondent finds him almost wholly abandoned by his own party, and the White House practically deserted and as lonesome as a tomb. The biggest accident in American politics is showing himself the biggest failure. When the British government turns its back upon him, who is there so low as to do him reverence? And yet this is not a state of affairs to be deplored. Having chosen to let things drift to the end of his term, the country confidently expects him to be harmless.

The Bride Smiled.

[From the Birmingham Age.]

An amusing incident occurred at the Union depot yesterday afternoon, and furnished fun for a large number of passengers. A rather modest-looking groom and his pretty bride were sitting delightfully close together, and were going through some of those lovable little antics which newly married couples alone can affect. Two young men were sitting just opposite waiting to welcome some sweetheart on the incoming train. The boys watched the caresses of the couple for a while, but finally decided to put a stop to it.

"Tom," said one of the young men to the other, "when is your wife coming home?"

"Never, I hope," replied the young man addressed. "I wish she would elope with some one, or the train would run off the bridge with her. By the way, when is your wife coming home?"

"Pretty soon, I am afraid. When she does, I have a good mind to meet her at the depot with an axe and give her and that infernal kid 10 minutes to leave in. A wife is a nuisance, anyway."

The young men kept up this nonsense for half an hour, and the loving couple knew that all of the conversation was intended for their ears. It tickled the bride immensely, but the groom got hotter and hotter, and finally called one of the young men aside and threatened to whip him. This had the effect of stilling the fun permanently, and the exultant groom bravely put his arm around his treasure and hugged her until the train carried them away on their bridal tour.

Mr. Fuller's Matrimonial Score.

[Rockford, Ill., dispatch to St. Louis Republic.]

Levi D. Fuller, of Cortland, De Kalb county, was in town, to-day, with his seventh wife, a red-headed, matronly-looking woman named Emeline Loomis. Fuller's first wife was Jane Maxwell. A divorce separated them. Alvira Clark was the second wife. She died. Nettie Moore was Fuller's wife three months, and then sought and secured a divorce. Fuller's fourth wife was Mrs. Elizabeth Cynthia Davis. One night the woman's former husband crawled into Fuller's bedroom and shot him in the leg. A divorce followed. Mollie Bishop was Fuller's fifth wife. She involved her husband in a stabbing affray, and was then released from the matrimonial yoke by a divorce court. Lotta Ray was Fuller's sixth wife, and she eloped with a brakeman.

Fuller's diary shows this interesting table: Replies to advertisements, 1,100; number of photographs exchanged, 400; proposals, 119; accepted, 85; rejected, 34; married, 7; divorced, 4; paid breach of promise damages, 1; married by minister, 1; married by justice, 6; shot at, 1; stabbed, 1; time of game, 25 years.

Fuller was engaged to seven women at one time. The only girl that ever went back on him was Carrie Smith of Dubuque. Six of his wives were blondes and one was a brunette. He leaves for home to morrow.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it is indeed wonderful. THE POWER OF INK.

"A small drop of ink, falling, like dew, upon a thought, proclaims that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think," wrote Byron. The inspiration of his pen might give the dusky fluid such a far-reaching power, and we wish we were possessed of such an inspiration, that we might, through a like medium, bring into such extended notice the matchless virtues of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, those tiny, sugar-coated granules which contain, in a concentrated form, the active principles of vegetable extracts that Dame Nature destined especially to promote a hearty action of the liver, stomach and bowels.

MAKE NO MISTAKE.—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to take any other. HOW I SUFFERED.

Seventeen Years from a Skin Disease. Could Not Walk or Dress Myself. A Mass of Disease from Head to Foot. Cured in Eight Weeks by the Cuticura Remedies

At the age of three months a rash [which afterwards proved to be eczema or salt rheum] made its appearance on my face. A physician was called. He said teething was the cause; he prescribed some cooling medicine, but the sores spread to my ears and head. Another M. D. was called. He professed to know all about the case, called it "King's Evil," and prescribed gunpowder, brimstone and lard mixed into a salve; but the disease continued. They could not do anything with it. Another prescribed borax, water and flour; another linseed poultices. None of them did me any good at all, but made me worse. The disease continued unabated; it spread to my arms and legs, till I was laid up entirely and from continually sitting on the floor on a pillow my limbs contracted so that I lost all control of them and was utterly helpless. My mother would have to lift me out and into bed. I could get around the house on my hands and feet, but I could not get my clothes on at all and had to wear a sort of dressing gown. My hair had all matted down or fallen off and my head, face and ears were one scab, and I had to have a towel on my head all the time in the summer to keep the flies off. My parents consulted a prominent physician and surgeon in Chicago [the other physicians before mentioned were of Dundas and Hamilton, Canada]. He said he could do nothing for me. He wanted to cut the sinews of my legs so that I could walk, but I would not let him, for if I did get better I would have no control of them.

The disease continued in this manner until I was 17 years old, and one day in January, 1879, I read an account in the Tribune of your Cuticura Remedies. It described my case so exactly that I thought, as a last resort, to give them a trial.

When I first applied them I was all raw and bleeding, from scratching myself, but I went asleep almost immediately, something I had not done for years, the effect was so soothing.

In about two weeks I could stand straight, but not walk, I was so weak, but my sores were nearly well. As near as I can judge the Cuticura Remedies cured me in about six to eight weeks and up to this date [i. e. from January, 1879, to January, 1887] I have not been sick in any way, or have had the least signs of the disease reappearing on me.

Constitutional Catarrh.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind,—one or more and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and an IMPROVED INHALER, price $1.

If You Are Sick

With Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Blood Humors, Kidney Disease, Constipation, Female Troubles, Fever and Ague, Sleeplessness, Partial Paralysis or Nervous Prostration, use Paine's Celery Compound and be cured. In each of these the cause is mental or physical overwork, anxiety, exposure or malaria, the effect of which is to weaken the nervous system, resulting in one of these diseases. Remove the cause with that great Nerve Tonic and the result will disappear.

PAINE'S

CELERY COMPOUND

Jas. L. Bowen, Springfield, Mass., writes: "Paine's Celery Compound cannot be excelled as a Nerve Tonic. In my case a single bottle wrought a great change. My nervousness entirely disappeared and with it the resulting affection of the stomach, heart and liver and the whole tone of the system was wonderfully invigorated. I tell my friends, if sick as I have been, Paine's Celery Compound

MORE DEMOCRATIC EDUCATION.

The Executive Committee of the Associated Democratic Clubs of the United States has issued a manifesto in which an attempt is made to explain the Democratic defeat and to evolve therefrom a plan of campaign for 1892. It starts off with the assertion that "the workingmen stood firmly by the Democracy, as may be seen by a careful examination of the returns from manufacturing centres." Now this is an infamous lie, a libel upon the intelligent workingmen of the country. The manufacturing centres, meaning the cities that decided the election, with very few exceptions increased their Republican vote. This was the case in St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Pittsburg and Brooklyn. With the exception of New York, where the slum vote grows more rapidly than that of the workingmen, and Albany, which is not a manufacturing but a political city, the cities of this state gave Harrison a larger vote than Blaine, and virtually decided the election. The Democratic assertion has for its foundation only New York, already mentioned, and Philadelphia, where Mr. Blaine had a personal strength that can probably never be equaled by any other candidate. The Republican party cannot afford to let this falsehood to go unrebuked. It owes a duty the faithful and intelligent workingmen who came over to the Republican party by thousands and made victory easy and sure.

The committee discovers that the admission of the territories into the Union and the change of representation consequent upon the census of 1890 will "broaden the contest," but it proposes to fight the battle from Maine to California on the same lines as those of 1888. Here is its assertion of principles:

To preserve the Constitution of the United States, the autonomy of the states, local self-government and freedom of elections; to resist revolutionary changes and the centralization of power; to oppose the imposition of taxes beyond the necessities of government economically administered; to promote economy in all branches of the public service; to oppose unnecessary commercial restrictions for the benefit of the few at the expense of the many; to oppose class legislation, which despoils labor and builds up monopoly; and to maintain inviolate the fundamental principle of Democratic equality before the law.

It further proposes to strike down the two arms of monopoly—"bribery and corruption." It adds the rather trite lamentation that the defeat of its party was due to "Republican misrepresentation and the effect of enormous sums of money handled by the most corrupt and efficient partisan organization ever known in this country." This charge of corruption against the Republican party will make the people smile. It comes from a party whose representative politicians crowd the prison of almost every Northern state, which has made a most contemptible fizzle of its only attempt—the one just come to an end in Indiana—to convict a Republican of bribery, and whose only President elected in 28 years was forced to go to these same prisons to find enough Democrats to fill the offices.

The club gives notice that it is going to begin an educational campaign among the farmers. The accusation that it makes against the workingmen, of standing by the Democratic party, it has not the audacity to repeat against the tillers of the soil. Well, let the enlightening process proceed. We shall see what will come of it—what impression the political bummers of the country, the men who toil not neither do they spin, whose sole hope in life is the acquisition of a fat office, are able to make upon the men who till the soil, guide our factories and commerce, build our railroads, and put into activity the capital and genius that double the nation's wealth and greatness once in every twenty-five years. The end, we believe, will show that the Democratic party stands most in need of education, and that it made a great mistake in not accepting the lesson of 1888 as the deliberate verdict of a people who know what they are doing.

SOME SOUTHERN REPUBLICANS.

The Democratic party at the North affects to believe that there is no good Republican Cabinet timber at the South. But prominent Democrats of that section have undertaken to assist Gen. Harrison in making a selection and are prepared to vouch for the high character and entire fitness of a sufficient number of men to stock several Cabinets without any assistance from the North. Senator Vance, after remarking that the late Judge Settle was the ablest Republican in North Carolina, asserted that H. S. F. Phillips, ex-Solicitor General, would pre-eminently grace a Cabinet seat. Equally complimentary remarks were made by Senator Jones of Arkansas respecting Powell Clayton and United States Judge Caldwell; while Senator Colquitt mentioned A. E. Buck, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Georgia; Senator Harris mentioned District Attorney Murray and Samuel Watson of Tennessee; Congressman Oates named ex-Chief Justice Rice and Gen. Willard Warner of Alabama; Representative Tillman named Samuel Melton of South Carolina; Representative Shaw mentioned Congressman McComas and Editor Agnus of Maryland, while Judges McCormick and Bell of Texas were named by different Representatives from that state.

These do not include all the well known and respected Republicans of the South. It has occasionally looked as if Gen. Henderson of Missouri, Wm. O. Bradley of Kentucky and Gen. Goff of West Virginia stood nearer to a Cabinet position than any of them, to say nothing of the universally admitted ability of Gen. Mahone of Virginia. Gen. Benjamin Harrison of Indiana will make the final selection. We do not doubt that he will give some sort of recognition to the South. And it is infinitely more important that he recognize the right of the party which these men lead to cast a free vote and have that vote honestly counted than it is to place the ablest of their number in his official family.

KICKING THE MAN WHO IS DOWN.

The Tribune's London correspondent sends the news that there will be no minister to the United States appointed in Sackville's place till after Harrison's inauguration. This is intended as a rebuke to Mr. Cleveland for his scandalous treatment of the late minister. Cleveland is given to understand that he is being insulted and snubbed. The correspondent complains of the President's indifference. It is his duty to recall Mr. Phelps at once, but there is no sign that this is to be done. Phelps remains to bear in his person the insult intended for his superior.

Salisbury will not gain the respect of the American people by his contemptuous way of kicking a man when he is down. Nothing is better known on this side of the Atlantic than that the Sackville dismissal was conducted with great regard for Salisbury's feelings; that it did not take place until he had become convinced that it was necessary as a part of the Democratic campaign, had given his full consent. Mr. Cleveland would undoubtedly have fared better at the polls if he had given Sackville his passports on the day that the Murchison letter appeared, and provoked Salisbury to indignant remonstrance and a threat of war even if it had been feigned. Mr. Cleveland does not deserve the unkind treatment that he is receiving from the government of the "mother country." And he would not receive it if he were going to remain in office four years more. It is the shallow expedient of a shallow Briton to curry favor with the next administration.

Undoubtedly a due respect for the dignity of the American nation would require the recall of Minister Phelps, who of necessity is out of favor with the British government and denied the official recognition which is due to his position; but not much need be expected of the President during the rest of his term except the performance of the routine duties of his office. He is too unhappy over his defeat to feel that keen interest in public affairs that he manifested before the election. If he were actually endeavoring to show himself of no account, a mere dummy in office, he could not succeed better in that direction than he is doing. The Chicago Tribune's Washington correspondent finds him almost wholly abandoned by his own party, and the White House practically deserted and as lonesome as a tomb. The biggest accident in American politics is showing himself the biggest failure. When the British government turns its back upon him, who is there so low as to do him reverence? And yet this is not a state of affairs to be deplored. Having chosen to let things drift to the end of his term, the country confidently expects him to be harmless.

The Bride Smiled.

[From the Birmingham Age.]

An amusing incident occurred at the Union depot yesterday afternoon, and furnished fun for a large number of passengers. A rather modest-looking groom and his pretty bride were sitting delightfully close together, and were going through some of those lovable little antics which newly married couples alone can affect. Two young men were sitting just opposite waiting to welcome some sweetheart on the incoming train. The boys watched the caresses of the couple for a while, but finally decided to put a stop to it.

"Tom," said one of the young men to the other, "when is your wife coming home?"

"Never, I hope," replied the young man addressed. "I wish she would elope with some one, or the train would run off the bridge with her. By the way, when is your wife coming home?"

"Pretty soon, I am afraid. When she does, I have a good mind to meet her at the depot with an axe and give her and that infernal kid 10 minutes to leave in. A wife is a nuisance, anyway."

The young men kept up this nonsense for half an hour, and the loving couple knew that all of the conversation was intended for their ears. It tickled the bride immensely, but the groom got hotter and hotter, and finally called one of the young men aside and threatened to whip him. This had the effect of stilling the fun permanently, and the exultant groom bravely put his arm around his treasure and hugged her until the train carried them away on their bridal tour.

Mr. Fuller's Matrimonial Score.

[Rockford, Ill., dispatch to St. Louis Republic.]

Levi D. Fuller, of Cortland, De Kalb county, was in town, to-day, with his seventh wife, a red-headed, matronly-looking woman named Emeline Loomis. Fuller's first wife was Jane Maxwell. A divorce separated them. Alvira Clark was the second wife. She died. Nettie Moore was Fuller's wife three months, and then sought and secured a divorce. Fuller's fourth wife was Mrs. Elizabeth Cynthia Davis. One night the woman's former husband crawled into Fuller's bedroom and shot him in the leg. A divorce followed. Mollie Bishop was Fuller's fifth wife. She involved her husband in a stabbing affray, and was then released from the matrimonial yoke by a divorce court. Lotta Ray was Fuller's sixth wife, and she eloped with a brakeman.

Fuller's diary shows this interesting table: Replies to advertisements, 1,100; number of photographs exchanged, 400; proposals, 119; accepted, 85; rejected, 34; married, 7; divorced, 4; paid breach of promise damages, 1; married by minister, 1; married by justice, 6; shot at, 1; stabbed, 1; time of game, 25 years.

Fuller was engaged to seven women at one time. The only girl that ever went back on him was Carrie Smith of Dubuque. Six of his wives were blondes and one was a brunette. He leaves for home to morrow.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

Salvation Oil is guaranteed to cure rheumatism, sore throat, swellings, bruises, burns, and frostbites. Price only 25 cents a bottle.

For three weeks I was suffering from a severe cold in my head, accompanied by a pain in the temples. I tried some of the many catarrh remedies without any relief. Ely's Cream Balm was recommended to me. After only six applications of the Balm every trace of my cold was removed.—Henry C. Clark, 1st Division New-York Appraisers' Office.

INTERESTED PEOPLE.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50 cents and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THE POWER OF INK.

"A small drop of ink, falling, like dew, upon a thought, proclaims that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think," wrote Byron. The inspiration of his pen might give the dusky fluid such a far-reaching power, and we wish we were possessed of such an inspiration, that we might, through a like medium, bring into such extended notice the matchless virtues of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, those tiny, sugar-coated granules which contain, in a concentrated form, the active principles of vegetable extracts that Dame Nature destined especially to promote a hearty action of the liver, stomach and bowels.

MAKE NO MISTAKE.—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion and preparation, curative power superior to any other article of the kind before the people. For all affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system it is unequalled. Be sure to get Hood's.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh by expelling impurity from the blood, which is the cause of complaint. Give it a trial.

To me last night: How much do you suppose we have paid out for doctors and medicine in the last year? I told her I did not know. To doctors I have paid nothing, and five dollars' worth of Sulphur Bitters has kept health in our family. L. Andrews, 12 Bowdoin-street, Boston.

A WOMAN'S DISCOVERY.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this County. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. HOW I SUFFERED.

Seventeen Years from a Skin Disease. Could Not Walk or Dress Myself. A Mass of Disease from Head to Foot. Cured in Eight Weeks by the Cuticura Remedies

At the age of three months a rash [which afterwards proved to be eczema or salt rheum] made its appearance on my face. A physician was called. He said teething was the cause; he prescribed some cooling medicine, but the sores spread to my ears and head. Another M. D. was called. He professed to know all about the case, called it "King's Evil," and prescribed gunpowder, brimstone and lard mixed into a salve; but the disease continued. They could not do anything with it. Another prescribed borax, water and flour; another linseed poultices. None of them did me any good at all, but made me worse. The disease continued unabated; it spread to my arms and legs, till I was laid up entirely and from continually sitting on the floor on a pillow my limbs contracted so that I lost all control of them and was utterly helpless. My mother would have to lift me out and into bed. I could get around the house on my hands and feet, but I could not get my clothes on at all and had to wear a sort of dressing gown. My hair had all matted down or fallen off and my head, face and ears were one scab, and I had to have a towel on my head all the time in the summer to keep the flies off. My parents consulted a prominent physician and surgeon in Chicago [the other physicians before mentioned were of Dundas and Hamilton, Canada]. He said he could do nothing for me. He wanted to cut the sinews of my legs so that I could walk, but I would not let him, for if I did get better I would have no control of them.

The disease continued in this manner until I was 17 years old, and one day in January, 1879, I read an account in the Tribune of your Cuticura Remedies. It described my case so exactly that I thought, as a last resort, to give them a trial.

When I first applied them I was all raw and bleeding, from scratching myself, but I went asleep almost immediately, something I had not done for years, the effect was so soothing.

In about two weeks I could stand straight, but not walk, I was so weak, but my sores were nearly well. As near as I can judge the Cuticura Remedies cured me in about six to eight weeks and up to this date [i. e. from January, 1879, to January, 1887] I have not been sick in any way, or have had the least signs of the disease reappearing on me.

Constitutional Catarrh.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind,—one or more and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and an IMPROVED INHALER, price $1.

★ OH! MY HEAD!! ★

Suffering of a New Jersey Senator—Dyspepsia, Sick Headache—Terrible Things.

When the stomach is torpid it soon becomes clogged with half digested matters, the blood becomes vitiated and foul; the other organs fail to act normally and induces a train of symptoms, such as dyspepsia, sick headache, dizziness, drowsiness, palpitation of the heart, pain in the back, loss of appetite.

"There are few things that I believe in with all my heart and it affords me pleasure to tell of one of them." The speaker was ex-Senator Albert Merritt, head of the large fruit firm, 82 Park Place, N. Y., and the scene his office. "I was sick and feared I had become fated to endure the

Tortures of Dyspepsia

And a dangerous affection of the kidneys. A relative said to me, 'Why don't you try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y.' I did so. I grew steadily better. I could eat, digest, sleep, and work with a clearer head and the yellow color of my skin had given place to the tones that announce pure blood and every organ of the body in healthy action. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is entitled to the credit of saving my life. If any one has a doubt about the truth of my statements let him write to me. I can give you the names and addresses of fifty persons who affirm, as I do, that 'Favorite Remedy' has been to them a help and a blessing in time of need." A. DeRevere, Tarrytown N. Y., says: "For a long time I was troubled with severe attacks of dizziness and

Blind Sick Headache

Due to impure blood and a disordered state of the system. I was advised to try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y. I did so and have been completely cured. It's the best thing I ever heard of for any disorder of that nature and I have recommended it to many with like success." Daniel Fitts, Taunton, Mass., says: "I recommend Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy for dysyepsia and sick headache. I suffered for many years with these complaints and was cured by

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy."

Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

★ OH! MY HEAD!! ★

Suffering of a New Jersey Senator—Dyspepsia, Sick Headache—Terrible Things.

When the stomach is torpid it soon becomes clogged with half digested matters, the blood becomes vitiated and foul; the other organs fail to act normally and induces a train of symptoms, such as dyspepsia, sick headache, dizziness, drowsiness, palpitation of the heart, pain in the back, loss of appetite.

"There are few things that I believe in with all my heart and it affords me pleasure to tell of one of them." The speaker was ex-Senator Albert Merritt, head of the large fruit firm, 82 Park Place, N. Y., and the scene his office. "I was sick and feared I had become fated to endure the

And a dangerous affection of the kidneys. A relative said to me, 'Why don't you try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y.' I did so. I grew steadily better. I could eat, digest, sleep, and work with a clearer head and the yellow color of my skin had given place to the tones that announce pure blood and every organ of the body in healthy action. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is entitled to the credit of saving my life. If any one has a doubt about the truth of my statements let him write to me. I can give you the names and addresses of fifty persons who affirm, as I do, that 'Favorite Remedy' has been to them a help and a blessing in time of need." A. DeRevere, Tarrytown N. Y., says: "For a long time I was troubled with severe attacks of dizziness and

Blind Sick Headache

Due to impure blood and a disordered state of the system. I was advised to try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y. I did so and have been completely cured. It's the best thing I ever heard of for any disorder of that nature and I have recommended it to many with like successs." Daniel Fitts, Taunton, Mass., says: "I recommend Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy for dysyepsia and sick headache. I suffered for many years with these complaints and was cured by

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy."

Price $1.00. Prepared at Rondout, N. Y.

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

Mailed secure from observation on receipt of $1.00 I also have a full line of elegant Toilet Goods, including Face Cream and Jellies, Wrinkle Paste Fattening Formula, Auburnine, Depilatory, Acnine, Freckle Lotion, etc. Development of a beautiful form a specialty. Sealed circulars, 4 cents.

General Heureaux, President of St. Domingo, has negotiated a loan with the Government of Holland and has purchased a man-of-war in order to be prepared for possible trouble with Hayti, should Legitime prove victorious.

The celebration of Christmas was never more general in all the large cities. Churches were crowded; business was absolutely suspended; inmates of public institutions and waifs and vagabonds were made happy, at least momentarily; homes were aglow with the season's cheer, and the clerk of the weather decreed a perfect, Florentine day.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

To make children healthy use plenty of air, plenty of milk, plenty of sleep, and always have a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in case of croup.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

RHEUMATISM

Is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips and wrist. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

FOR DYSPEPSIA and Liver Complaint, you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY,

Discoverer and Proprietor of Cherry Balsam, is not in a position to risk his reputation upon the success or failure of any preparation as to whose merits a single doubt exists in his own mind, and in recommending the Cherry Balsam for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all bronchial pulmonary affections, he does so with the greatest confidence, having had the most gratifying results follow the use of Cherry Balsam, which he has prescribed for a long time in his private practice. The value of this preparation cannot be overestimated, and even were Dr. Kennedy's own assurance incredible the testimony of the hosts who have used it cannot be impeached. Cherry Balsam will prove effective in many cases of Incipient Consumption; also in Bronchitis and Asthma, where other preparations have not even afforded relief.

It is prompt in its effects, and is therefore a most reliable medicine to use in all complaints such as Croup, Whooping Cough and Hoarseness. A careful trial of Cherry Balsam will prove its superiority over similar preparations.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—A positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker Mouth. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

POOR WIDOW BEDOTT!

She tried to write love poetry to the deacon, and could frame only—

"Affliction sore
Long time I bore."

Had the lone creature used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—the sure remedy for the weaknesses and peculiar ailments of her sex—she might have secured the deacon's favor by the cheerful character of her verses.

FOUND DEAD.

Last evening a person giving the name of G. R. Thompson registered at Hunt's Hotel, and desired to be called in season to take the 12 P. M. train for Chicago. Being unable to awaken him, the room was entered by means of the ventilator over the door, when the gentleman was found to be dead. He was advertising agent for Sulphur Bitters, which has an extensive sale. The coroner returned a verdict of death from heart disease. His body will be sent east immediately.—Cincinnati Commercial.

DON'T YOU KNOW

that you cannot afford to neglect that catarrh? Don't you know that it may lead to consumption, to insanity, to death? Don't you know that it can be easily cured? Don't you know that while the thousand and one nostrums you have tried have utterly failed that Dr. Sage's Cartarrh Remedy is a certain cure? It has stood the test of years, and there are hundreds of thousands of grateful men and women in all parts of the country who can testify to its efficacy. All druggists.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

A MOTHER GOOSE MONUMENT.

"Boston wants to erect a monument to Mother Goose," says a Western editor: "Let the geese contribute the funds." The testimony of thousands establishes the fact that Dr. Tutt's Pills, followed by quinine, is a permanet cure for chills and fever. "Our physicians prescribe them in their practice," writes I. H. Athey, Holly Springs, Miss. A monument to Dr. Tutt could, no doubt, be readily raised in almost any malarial district. The contributors could be the grateful thousands who have been cured by these pills.

One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a dollar a bottle, at VanDeusen Brothers', Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston, drug stores.

CHRONICLES OF THIS CITY.

TO-DAY'S LOCAL NEWS, AND SOME NOTE AND COMMENT.

Business Transacted in Two Courts in Kingston—Wedding Bells in Ponckhockie—The Prevalent Unseasonable Weather—Shot a Teal.

Some said, "John print it," others said, "Not So."
Some said, "It might do good," others said "No."
—John Bunyan's Apology.

PREVALENT PHENOMENAL WEATHER.

Some Queer Freaks in the Animal, Insect and Vegetable Kingdoms Noted.

The balmy, spring-like weather of the past two days has resulted in furnishing some odd sights in the animal, insect, and vegetation kingdoms.

This afternoon, when the sun shone hot and strong at a number of points along the Hudson River, bees came out of their hives and buzzed around on industry bent, as merrily as though it were mid-summer in place of mid-winter.

From Hudson comes the story that a butterfly was caught in one of the streets there.

There are farmers who say they would not be at all surprised to see grass sprout if the prevalent weather continues many days longer. Buds were found on an elm tree at South Rondout this afternoon, and at various other places freaks of nature in vegetable life have been noted.

The hot sun has caused the ice on the Hudson River to become somewhat porous, and the hopes of Superintendents of large ice gathering concerns that the fields will break up and flow southward may be realized within a very short period of time. The ice is very muddy and is worthless for storing purposes.

Various "oldest inhabitants" here and in the Catskill Mountains were asked this afternoon if they had ever seen such weather before. One old man said: "Yes, and once only in this section of the country. On Christmas Day, 11 years ago, the weather was warm like that of yesterday. Through the greater portion of January high temperature prevailed. There was not a particle of snow, and the grass was as green as green could be. Honey bees came out just as they have come out to day. Fires were unnecessary in houses for heating purposes. Doors and windows were wide open, and people felt tired and sleepy like. I remember one man who had some threshing to do, who said he would not do it till the weather grew colder. It was too warm to work. I put some of my men at work in a quarry and they perspired freely, although they had divested themselves of coats and waistcoats."

The year 1888 will go down into the annals as having been one of the most remarkable ones from a meteorological point of view, so far as the present generation of men upon the earth are concerned.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, KINGSTON.

Business Transacted Before Judge Mayham—Several Interesting Decisions.

In the Circuit Court, Kingston, on Monday afternoon, the following disposition was made of cases: No. 15, Michael Mitchell vs. Daniel Driscoll, and No. 6, Ann C. Ostrander vs. John C. Washburn, over the term; No. 16, Leslie H. Newman vs. Henry McNamee, and No. 17, Addison J. Wilkinson vs. Henry McNamee, complaints dismissed, without costs.

In the case of the Ulster County Savings Institution vs. Rienzi Lasher, an appeal from Justice's Court was argued. Decision reserved.

No. 160, John H. Schreiber vs. Emma L. Brigham et al., and No. 120, George W. Dunn vs. George C. White, referred to C. F. Cantine.

Judge Mayham gave a verbel decision in the case of Daniel E. Donovan vs. John S. DeWitt, Administrator, et al. Donovan in buying real estate assumed the payment of a mortgage. Supposing the interest was 7 per cent., he paid that amount for some time. Later he ascertained that the rate of interest was 6 per cent., and brought the action asking that the excess of interest be applied on the principal. Decision in favor of plaintiff. No costs allowed.

Jurors discharged.

The Court was convened again, this afternoon. Equity cases were called for trial.

The case of Barley against Roosa was tried; action for ejectment.

FROZEN TO DEATH IN SAUGERTIES.

Horrible End of a Woman Named Stevens—No Food in Her Stomach.

Ann Stevens, who for several years lived in a parsimonious manner in a tenement, in Saugerties, has been found frozen to death in her squalid room. Coroner Kemble was notified. Dr. S. L. Dawes made a post mortem examination. He found the stomach entirely empty of food.

Kindling wood and coal were found in the dead woman's room.

She was last seen alive on Thursday. Her starving and freezing to death is believed to have been no fault of the neighbors or authorities, as the woman could have obtained food had she made her condition known. Her age was about 50.

Wedded on Christmas Day.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of James Rodie, Sr., on Abruyn-street, Ponckhockie, on Christmas afternoon. The contracting parties were Frank Reed Powley and Miss Anna Cameron Rodie, a daughter of Mr. Rodie. The Rev. I. Magee, D. D., Pastor of the Wurts-Street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The ushers were Walter P. Crane and Robert S. Rodie. The bride was attired in a rich gown of white faille Francaise en train. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The young couple crossed the Hudson River on the 7:25 ferry en route on a trip South.

Mistletoe Found in the Woods Near Here.

A. T. Clearwater, of Kingston, while horseback riding, the other day, found a mistletoe shrub growing upon an old cedar tree standing in a woods in a sheltered nook within three miles of the Court House, this City. The mistletoe shrub is rare in this part of the country.

There will be a meeting of Pratt Post, G. A. R., of this City, to-night.

Abram Rose, a colored man, of Kingston, died, this morning, of consumption.

The case of Miller vs. Miller will be heard before Judge Kenyon on January 15 and 16, 1889.

Horseback riders were out in force, yesterday, on Albany-avenue and on the Saugerties Road.

Livery horses in this City were all "engaged" yesterday, despite the fact that there was no sleighing.

The ice has melted on the Kingston Lowland ponds, and skating is spoiled, to the great regret of boys.

James E. Ostrander, Treasurer of the Ulster County Savings Institution, is in New-York City, undergoing surgical treatment.

The triplex is a new style of photograph, in which six views of the face are taken, showing it from as many points of view.

A Philadelphia doctor says an hour's exercise with a snow shovel is equal to three hours at billiards. Certain Kingston City young men should heed this advice.

At Mrs. Gertrude Pardee's residence, on Clinton-avenue, Kingston, a cloth used to dust stoves caught fire, to-day, and caused smoke and some stir in the immediate vicinity.

The members of the Rondout Social Maennerchor will meet at their hall, to-night, and rehearse songs that will be sung at Washington Hall on January 7, previous to the taking place of the grand march at their masquerade ball.

The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company, of this City, will engage in a full dress parade, at the Armory, to-morrow night. On New-Year's Day the organization will go to Albany to take part in the inauguration exercises.

The old story is again heard that a Kingston woman told a lady friend what success she had buying a Christmas present for her husband. "Why," said she, "men don't know how to buy things anyway. John is used to paying for his cigars six dollars a box. Do you know that I went to a cigar man and without beating him down much, he sold me a box for 12 shilling and a great deal bigger cigars than those John paid six dollars for?"

Excellent Choral Services in Various Churches—Christmas Trees and Gifts For Little Folks—In the Theatres And in Ball Rooms.

In December ring
Every day the chimes;
Loudly the gleemen sing
In the streets their merry rhymes.
Let us sing by the fire ever higher,
Sing them till the night expire.
—Longfellow.

The Christmas holiday was a happy one in this City. The weather was all that could be desired and the Christian homes in which no presents were given and received were few and far between. Never before in the history of this City was there so large a sale of Christmas presents reported, and never before were so many received and sent by mail and express. Dealers in poultry and meats, to use their own words, were "worked to death" in delivering their wares. There were many public amusements and many pleasant family reunions. The observance of Christmas was more general than ever known before. The absence of sleighing was fully compensated for by the superb weather and excellent wheeling. It was a notable Christmas in all respects.

How Christmas was spent in churches, in the Industrial Home, in theatres, ball rooms, etc., is told in the column and a half or so of matter that follows:

THE NIGHT AFTER CHRISTMAS.

'Twas the night after Christmas, when all through the house
Every soul was abed, and as still as a mouse;
Those stockings so lately St. Nicholas's care
Were emptied of all that was eatable there.
The darlings had duly been tucked in their beds,
With very full stomachs and pains in their heads.
I was dozing away in my new cotton cap,
And Nancy was rather far gone in a nap,
When out in the nursery there goes such a clatter,
I sprang out of bed, crying, "what is the matter?"
I flew to each bedside still half in a doze,
Tore open the curtains and threw off the clothes;
While the light of the taper served clearly to show
The piteous plight of those objects below.
For, what to the fond father's eyes should appear
But the pale little face of each sick little dear;
Each pet, having crammed itself full as a tick,
I knew in a moment, now felt like old Nick!
Their pulses were rapid, their breathing the same;
What their stomach rejected I'll mention by name;
Now turkey, now stuffing, plum pudding, of course,
And custards, and crullers, and cranberry sauce—
Before outraged nature all went to the wall—
Yes, lollypops, flapdoodle, great things and small;
Like pellets, which urchins from pop-guns let fly,
When figs, nuts and raisins, jam, jelly and pie,
Till each error of diet was brought to my view,
To the shame of mamma and of Santa Claus, too.
I turned from the sight, to my bedroom stepped back,
And brought out a vial marked Pulv. Ipecac.,
When my Nancy exclaimed—for their sufferings shocked her—
"Don't you think you had better, love, run for the doctor?"
I ran—and was scarcely back under my roof,
When I heard the sharp clatter of old Jalap's hoof;
I might say that I hardly had turned myself round,
When the doctor came into the room with a bound.
He was spattered with mud from his hats to his boots,
And the clothes he had on seemed the drollest of suits;
In his haste he'd put all quite awry on his back,
And he looked like John Fallstaff all covered with sack.
His eyes, how they twinkled! had the doctor got merry?
His nose looked like Port and his breath smelt of Sherry;
He hadn't been shaved for a fortnight or so,
And the beard on his chin wasn't white as the snow.
But, inspecting their tongues, in despite of their teeth,
And drawing his watch from his waistcoat beneath,
He felt of each pulse, saying, "each little belly
Must get rid"—here he laughed—"of the rest of that jelly."
I gazed on each plump, chubby, sick little elf,
And groaned when he said so, in spite of myself.
But a wink of his eye, as he physicked dear Fred
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.
He didn't prescribe—but went straightway to work
And dosed all the rest—gave his trousers a jerk,
And adding directions while blowing his nose,
He buttoned his coat, from his chair he arose,
Then jumped in his gig, gave old Jalap a whistle,
And Jalap dashed off as if pricked by a thistle.
But the doctor exclaimed, ere he drove out of sight,
"They'll be well by to-morrow—good night, Jones, good night!"

AT THE INDUSTRIAL HOME.

It was a Merry Christmas at the Industrial Home, and if all those who sent of their abundance could have found time to have visited that excellent institution, yesterday, they would have been well repaid. The little ones were rendered very happy by the presents they received, and by the excellent fare provided for their Christmas dinner.

CHURCH ENTERTAINMENTS HELD.

The members of the Foxhall-Avenue A. M. E. Church partook of a turkey supper last night.

The members of the Sunday School of St. Peter's Church, enjoyed a Christmas Tree festival, in St. Peter's Hall, yesterday afternoon.

The entertainment given by the ladies of St. James M. E. Church, Christmas Eve, was interesting, successful and largely attended.

There was a large Christmas tree in the Livingston-Street Lutheran Church, on Monday evening. Each member of the Sunday School received a present.

A pleasant entertainment was given in the Albany-Avenue Baptist Church, Christmas Eve. A short literary and musical programme was rendered. Members of the Infant Class received gifts. Refreshments were served.

The interior of the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, last evening, presented a pleasing sight. Two large Christmas trees, handsomely trimmed and lighted, were to be seen loaded with presents for the members of the Sunday School. A literary and musical programme was rendered. Two of the recitations were given in the English language. There was a large attendance.

ENTERTAINMENTS YET TO BE GIVEN.

An entertainment will be given in the Fair-Street Reformed Church on Friday evening.

An organ concert will be given in the Fair-Street Reformed Church, Monday evening, January 14.

Clinton-Avenue M. E. Church Sunday School pupils will give an entertainment during the first week in January.

To-night a Christmas entertainment will be given in the Elmendorf-Street Presbyterian Church by the pupils of the Sunday School.

The Christmas tree festival of St. John's Sunday School, Kingston, will be held in the Church, on the evening of Holy Innocents' Day, Friday, December 28.

A POSTPONED ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment announced to having taken place in Clinton-Avenue M. E. Church on Christmas Eve was postponed until this evening.

THREE SUCCESSFUL FAIRS.

The fair of Rapid Hose Company, No. 1, of Rondout, was opened under auspicious circumstances, yesterday afternoon. In the evening there was a large attendance. Tables containing fancy articles, are arranged on either side of the hall, the space intervening being reserved for dancing. Lady friends of the organization presided at the tables, which were liberally patronized. The hall decorations are pleasing to the eye. The Rapids endeavored to make things pleasant for their guests and they succeeded. There are several prizes being competed for. There was lively voting for the firemen's prize of a plush banner and a gold watch for the most popular young lady. A handsome smoker's stand attracts attention, and many ballots were cast for it. A bed-room set will go to some lucky person. Louis Quentel was awarded a badge for selling the most tickets of admission to the fair, nearly 700. The last day of the fair will be December 31.

The fair of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rondout, will be opened to-night in St. Mary's Parochial School Hall and will be continued for two weeks. To-day Sisters of Charity and young ladies connected with the church arranged the last details of what promises to be one of the most successful fairs ever held by that church. The Rev. P. Prendergast, the Pastor, has interested himself in the matter and his presence will add to the pleasure of the event. There will be four booths where displays of fancy articles, many of which have been contributed, cannot fail to attract the eye of visitors. These booths will be in charge of the school children, members of the Society of St. Mary's, Children of Mary and St. Joseph. There will be a refreshment table near the stage at the head of the hall. Four young ladies of the parish will compete for a diamond ring, and a like number of gentlemen will strive for a prize of a gold watch. The hall is trimmed and festooned.

The fair of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Kingston, was opened auspiciously last evening. The fair is being held in St. Joseph's School building, corner of Fair and Bowery-streets. It will be continued every night this week, from 7:30 to 10:30, and perhaps a few evenings of next week. The rooms were so crowded last night that it required exertion to reach the tables. The tables are well stocked with fancy articles, children's toys, drums and many useful and ornamental articles. Among the special attractions are two gold watches and a diamond ring. The gold watches will be voted to two of the most popular gentlemen of the Church. The ring will be disposed of by chance. There are three tables and a refreshment room. At the Children of Mary's table Miss Eliza Nolan presides. She has a number of assistants. Mrs. J. Kiernan, Mrs. J. J. Albrecht and Mrs. J. Ring preside at the table of the Sacred Heart. Mrs. William Reynolds and Miss Mary O'Brien have charge of the refreshment table. Many articles were sold last night. A portion of the time was devoted to dancing. The floors were sufficiently cleared to give room to the dancers. This fair is for the purpose of raising money to reduce the church debt. Members of the congregation take great interest in it, and have furnished many articles. The Rev. Edward J. Conroy, Pastor of the Church, was present during a part of the evening and seemed well pleased with the success of the opening night.

OTHER CHRISTMAS GATHERINGS.

The members of the Rondout Quartette Club gathered around a heavily laden Christmas tree, in Englert's Hall, on Monday evening. The Society had a merry time.

Various other societies held pleasant gatherings.

IN THE THEATRES.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Fox-Kane and Professor Ransom, in Kingston Opera House, last evening, was not largely attended, and cannot be said to have been a success.

The Guy Brothers' Minstrels gave two excellent performances in Liscomb's Opera House, yesterday. Many of the "acts" were new, and all were above the average. It is a well balanced troupe, and was worthy of the patronage bestowed. The house was literally packed last night. Manager Liscomb should book more such shows.

BALLS LAST NIGHT.

The ball of the members of Weiner Hose Company, held in the Academy of Music, last night, was largely attended and enjoyable. A Committee from the Hobart Hose Company, of Hobart, Delaware County, attended.

Other balls held were largely attended.

PASTORS, PEOPLES AND CHURCHES.

The Father of the New-York Methodist Conference—Concerning Meetings, Etc.

The Rev. Isaac Peck, late of Flushing, L. I., is now Pastor of St. Paul's Church, Kinderhook.

On Sunday evening, the last of the present series of the Young People's prayer meetings in St. James Church, Kingston, will be held. Samuel D. Gibson will be leader, and the theme will be "Good Resolutions."

The Rev. P. C. Oakley, of Milton, Ulster County—who is known as the "Father" of the New-York Methodist Conference—in his early days set type beside one of the Harper Brothers, in New York City.

FATAL ACCIDENTS NOTED

BY CORRESPONDENTS OF THE "KINGSTON DAILY FREEMAN."

Two Brothers Killed on the D. & H. Railroad, Near Cooperstown Junction—A Man Named Vandemark Loses His Life, Etc.

"It is the unexpected that happens."

Correspondents of THE FREEMAN report accidents in Delaware and Ulster Counties and in this City as follows:

TWO BROTHERS KILLED.

The Oneonta correspondent of THE FREEMAN writes: On Monday, December 24, Henry and John VanWormer, two brothers, of the town of Maryland, Otsego County, were struck by a west-bound train on the Delaware & Hudson Railroad, about one mile below Cooperstown Junction, and instantly killed. The bodies were terribly mangled.

KILLED NEAR KERHONKSON.

Hiram Vandemark, of Kerkonkson, Ulster County, was at work near that village, yesterday, hoisting stone with a derrick on the Delaware & Hudson Canal. The "fall" of the derrick broke, allowing a large stone to fall on Vandermark. He was instantly killed.

OTHER MISHAPS REPORTED.

Mrs. Edward Merrihew, who resides on Washington-avenue, Kingston, while calling on a neighbor, accidentally fell down a staircase, and dislocated her shoulder, yesterday.

William Shay, a prominent resident of New-Hamburgh, fell from his carriage and was instantly killed on Monday. It is believed he was suffering from a stroke of apoplexy. The deceased is reported to have been worth from $50,000 to $60,000.

A smash up occurred on Albany-avenue, Kingston, yesterday afternoon. W. W. Hermance's wagon was run into by another vehicle. The rig of Hermance was overturned and he was thrown out. Mr. Hermance was rendered unconscious by the shock but soon recovered.

SHOT A TEAL ON THE HUDSON RIVER.

Rather an Unusual Capture Made by a Young Man While Hunting.

This forenoon Harry Coykendall, of Rondout, while hunting between cakes of ice in a boat on the Hudson River, captured a curiosity. He saw flying what he presumed to be a wild duck. He fired and the biped fell. The bird proved to be a teal, a web-footed water fowl nearly allied to the duck.

Teals are sometimes seen near streams in the Catskill Mountains, but it is seldom they are found looking for food on the Hudson River.

They are graceful flyers and dart into the water after a fish with lightning-like motion. The one shot by Mr. Coykendall is a fine specimen. Its feathers are of a bluish tint.

OTHER HUNTING AND FISHING STORIES

Albert Crawford caught 200 pounds of pickerel in the Wolf Pond, Sullivan County, in three days' time, recently.

A sucker was caught in the Schoharie Creek, at Gilboa, one day recently, that was 20 inches in length and weighed three and one-half pounds.

L. Somers, of Monticello, bagged a dozen partridges the other day without firing a shot. The birds were frozen to death by the recent cold snap, and Sullivan County hunters have reaped the benefit. The partridges were plump and said to be excellent eating.

A number of farmers in the vicinity of Windham have been greatly perplexed of late over a problem that until recently nobody in the neighborhood could solve. Night after night fowls would mysteriously disappear from barn yards and no trace be found of them anywhere. H. Kirtland, of Durham, was one of the heaviest losers, and though a man of over 70 years of age, he resolved to catch the thief. For two days and nights he kept watch on his coops. The third day he was about giving it up, when he saw a fox prowling around the premises. Reynard entered the coop and was just about pouncing on a fine, plump fowl, when Mr. Kirtland "went" for the depredator with a pitchfork. The fox was pinned to the ground and quickly dispatched. Three other foxes have been caught during the past week and now fowls are unmolested.

[From the New-Paltz Times.]

William H. Norton, of New-Paltz, owns one of the best fox hounds in Ulster County. Mr. Norton says the best place to find foxes is in the Tamarack swamp, north of Ohioville, after it is frozen over. A few days ago his hound followed a fox out of the swamp, and caught it before it had run a quarter of a mile. On a straight course and fresh track a fox hasn't foot enough to get away from said hound.

VARIOUS SPORTING MATTERS NOTED.

Newburgh's Athletic Tournament—Wrestling Match—$2,500 for a Colt.

Albany-avenue the past few days has been the scene of interesting contests.

A large deer was seen on the Pintler farm, in Sullivan County, one day recently.

On Christmas Day a number of Kingston City bicyclers took a spin on Albany and Union-avenues.

A five-year-old colt has been purchased at Pontiac, Mich., by the proprietors of the Hudson River Driving Park, at Poughkeepsie, for $2,500.

A wrestling match took place, Monday evening, in Newburgh, between Lucien Marc Christol, who traveled recently with Barnum's circus, where he performed the feat of lifting a horse, and Thomas Martin, of that City.

In reporting the recent Athletic Tournament at Newburgh, the Register says: "The running broad jump was won by Lewis Hoffman, who made 16 feet, nine inches, with John P. Fitzpatrick, second, and Henry R. Swivel, third."

NEWSPAPERS AND NEWSPAPER MEN.

Mourning in the Office of the "Wurtsboro Dispatch"—A Paper's New Dress.

The New-Paltz Times was printed on Monday, this week, on account of "the Christmas holiday."

The Poughkeepsie Sunday Courier gives evidence of the appreciation of its excellencies by appearing in a new dress at the close of the year 1888.

Hammond Lamont, a son of the Rev. Thomas Lamont, of Rondout, will be the new City Editor of the Albany Express, which is now the property of William Barnes, Jr.

The Wurtsboro Dispatch office is in mourning over the untimely fate of a turtle. It did not seem to be bright and agile as usual, a day or two ago, and it crawled for seclusion under the press. The turtle was gently lifted away, but unseen by its friend, the pressman, it crawled back again, and one of the rockers crushed it. The turtle was a pet with every one in the office, from the "devil" up, and grief was evinced when the news went around that "Jumbo" was no more. It was a wonderfully "knowing" turtle, and every morning it would protrude its head as if bowing in welcome to every arrival. One or two particular favorites in the office it would follow around as though seeking a "take," word or pat of commendation.

A Young Cook Uses Kerosene.

While alone in the house Bessie Van Wick, a young daughter of James C. Van Wick, of Cold Spring on-the-Hudson, was preparing the Christmas dinner, yesterday, the fire becoming low, Bessie in order to rekindle it poured kerosene on the embers. The house and all its contents, including $500 in money, were destroyed leaving her father homeless and penniless. There was no insurance.

NEAT AND CLEAR-HEADED MEN

Abhor the idea of an attack of catarrh as they do the bite of a poison snake. Yet this foul and most disgusting disease is very common. In its first stages it occasions very little discomfort and is therefore liable to be neglected. It is an inflammation of the lining membrane of the mouth, nose and throat. The glands and membranes secrete a fluid to keep the mouth, nose and eyes moist. From cold, debility and other causes this fluid is apt to be too copious; that is catarrh. Flowing from the nostrils it causes weak and watery eyes, irritates the nose, causes sneezing and finally the coughing up and expectoration of the offensive matter. These droppings will sometimes collect so rapidly as nearly to choke the person. Unless promptly treated catarrh lasts for years, producing dreadful results. The ordinary symptoms are pain in the eyes and in the forehead over the eyes; a dull heavy headache; obstruction of the nasal passages; discharges falling into the throat, and a moist, offensive breath. On the first sign of its appearance Dr. Brown's Sarsaparilla should be taken to purify the blood, for catarrh is a blood disease. In chronic cases an immediate cure must not be expected; but this great regulator of the blood will, if its use be continued, afford speedy relief and final cure. Hay fever, or cold in the head, a disease of summer chiefly, has similar symptoms and is cured by this remedy in the same way. It is important to remember that catarrh, being neglected, or arrested, gradually creeps down into the wind pipe and lungs and may end in incurable consumption. You may easily and cheaply prevent this terrible calamity by the use of

PREVALENT PHENOMENAL WEATHER.

Some Queer Freaks in the Animal, Insect and Vegetable Kingdoms Noted.

The balmy, spring-like weather of the past two days has resulted in furnishing some odd sights in the animal, insect, and vegetation kingdoms.

This afternoon, when the sun shone hot and strong at a number of points along the Hudson River, bees came out of their hives and buzzed around on industry bent, as merrily as though it were mid-summer in place of mid-winter.

From Hudson comes the story that a butterfly was caught in one of the streets there.

There are farmers who say they would not be at all surprised to see grass sprout if the prevalent weather continues many days longer. Buds were found on an elm tree at South Rondout this afternoon, and at various other places freaks of nature in vegetable life have been noted.

The hot sun has caused the ice on the Hudson River to become somewhat porous, and the hopes of Superintendents of large ice gathering concerns that the fields will break up and flow southward may be realized within a very short period of time. The ice is very muddy and is worthless for storing purposes.

Various "oldest inhabitants" here and in the Catskill Mountains were asked this afternoon if they had ever seen such weather before. One old man said: "Yes, and once only in this section of the country. On Christmas Day, 11 years ago, the weather was warm like that of yesterday. Through the greater portion of January high temperature prevailed. There was not a particle of snow, and the grass was as green as green could be. Honey bees came out just as they have come out to-day. Fires were unnecessary in houses for heating purposes. Doors and windows were wide open, and people felt tired and sleepy like. I remember one man who had some threshing to do, who said he would not do it till the weather grew colder. It was too warm to work. I put some of my men at work in a quarry and they perspired freely, although they had divested themselves of coats and waistcoats."

The year 1888 will go down into the annals as having been one of the most remarkable ones from a meteorological point of view, so far as the present generation of men upon the earth are concerned.

Kindling wood and coal were found in the dead woman's room.

John is used to paying for his cigars six dollars a box. Do you know that I went to a cigar man and without beating him down much, he sold me a box for 12 shilling and a great deal bigger cigars than those John paid six dollars for?"

CHRISTMAS AFTERMATH.

SOME OF THE DOINGS IN THIS CITY BRIEFLY REVIEWED.

Excellent Choral Services in Various Churches—Christmas Trees and Gifts For Little Folks—In the Theatres And in Ball Rooms.

In December ring
Every day the chimes;
Loudly the gleemen sing
In the streets their merry rhymes.
Let us sing by the fire ever higher,
Sing them till the night expire.
—Longfellow.

The Christmas holiday was a happy one in this City. The weather was all that could be desired and the Christian homes in which no presents were given and received were few and far between. Never before in the history of this City was there so large a sale of Christmas presents reported, and never before were so many received and sent by mail and express. Dealers in poultry and meats, to use their own words, were "worked to death" in delivering their wares. There were many public amusements and many pleasant family reunions. The observance of Christmas was more general than ever known before. The absence of sleighing was fully compensated for by the superb weather and excellent wheeling. It was a notable Christmas in all respects.

How Christmas was spent in churches, in the Industrial Home, in theatres, ball rooms, etc., is told in the column and a half or so of matter that follows:

THE NIGHT AFTER CHRISTMAS.

'Twas the night after Christmas, when all through the house
Every soul was abed, and as still as a mouse;
Those stockings so lately St. Nicholas's care
Were emptied of all that was eatable there.
The darlings had duly been tucked in their beds,
With very full stomachs and pains in their heads.
I was dozing away in my new cotton cap,
And Nancy was rather far gone in a nap,
When out in the nursery there goes such a clatter,
I sprang out of bed, crying, "what is the matter?"
I flew to each bedside still half in a doze,
Tore open the curtains and threw off the clothes;
While the light of the taper served clearly to show
The piteous plight of those objects below.
For, what to the fond father's eyes should appear
But the pale little face of each sick little dear;
Each pet, having crammed itself full as a tick,
I knew in a moment, now felt like old Nick!
Their pulses were rapid, their breathing the same;
What their stomach rejected I'll mention by name;
Now turkey, now stuffing, plum pudding, of course,
And custards, and crullers, and cranberry sauce—
Before outraged nature all went to the wall—
Yes, lollypops, flapdoodle, great things and small;
Like pellets, which urchins from pop-guns let fly,
When figs, nuts and raisins, jam, jelly and pie,
Till each error of diet was brought to my view,
To the shame of mamma and of Santa Claus, too.
I turned from the sight, to my bedroom stepped back,
And brought out a vial marked Pulv. Ipecac.,
When my Nancy exclaimed—for their sufferings shocked her—
"Don't you think you had better, love, run for the doctor?"
I ran—and was scarcely back under my roof,
When I heard the sharp clatter of old Jalap's hoof;
I might say that I hardly had turned myself round,
When the doctor came into the room with a bound.
He was spattered with mud from his hats to his boots,
And the clothes he had on seemed the drollest of suits;
In his haste he'd put all quite awry on his back,
And he looked like John Fallstaff all covered with sack.
His eyes, how they twinkled! had the doctor got merry?
His nose looked like Port and his breath smelt of Sherry;
He hadn't been shaved for a fortnight or so,
And the beard on his chin wasn't white as the snow.
But, inspecting their tongues, in despite of their teeth,
And drawing his watch from his waistcoat beneath,
He felt of each pulse, saying, "each little belly
Must get rid"—here he laughed—"of the rest of that jelly."
I gazed on each plump, chubby, sick little elf,
And groaned when he said so, in spite of myself.
But a wink of his eye, as he physicked dear Fred
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.
He didn't prescribe—but went straightway to work
And dosed all the rest—gave his trousers a jerk,
And adding directions while blowing his nose,
He buttoned his coat, from his chair he arose,
Then jumped in his gig, gave old Jalap a whistle,
And Jalap dashed off as if pricked by a thistle.
But the doctor exclaimed, ere he drove out of sight,
"They'll be well by to-morrow—good night, Jones, good night!"

AT THE INDUSTRIAL HOME.

It was a Merry Christmas at the Industrial Home, and if all those who sent of their abundance could have found time to have visited that excellent institution, yesterday, they would have been well repaid. THREE SUCCESSFUL FAIRS.

The fair of Rapid Hose Company, No. 1, of Rondout, was opened under auspicious circumstances, yesterday afternoon. In the evening there was a large attendance. Tables containing fancy articles, are arranged on either side of the hall, the space intervening being reserved for dancing. Lady friends of the organization presided at the tables, which were liberally patronized. The hall decorations are pleasing to the eye. The Rapids endeavored to make things pleasant for their guests and they succeeded. There are several prizes being competed for. There was lively voting for the firemen's prize of a plush banner and a gold watch for the most popular young lady. A handsome smoker's stand attracts attention, and many ballots were cast for it. A bed-room set will go to some lucky person. Louis Quentel was awarded a badge for selling the most tickets of admission to the fair, nearly 700. The last day of the fair will be December 31.

The fair of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rondout, will be opened to-night in St. Mary's Parochial School Hall and will be continued for two weeks. To-day Sisters of Charity and young ladies connected with the church arranged the last details of what promises to be one of the most successful fairs ever held by that church. The Rev. P. Prendergast, the Pastor, has interested himself in the matter and his presence will add to the pleasure of the event. There will be four booths where displays of fancy articles, many of which have been contributed, cannot fail to attract the eye of visitors. These booths will be in charge of the school children, members of the Society of St. Mary's, Children of Mary and St. Joseph. There will be a refreshment table near the stage at the head of the hall. Four young ladies of the parish will compete for a diamond ring, and a like number of gentlemen will strive for a prize of a gold watch. The hall is trimmed and festooned.

The fair of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Kingston, was opened auspiciously last evening. The fair is being held in St. Joseph's School building, corner of Fair and Bowery-streets. It will be continued every night this week, from 7:30 to 10:30, and perhaps a few evenings of next week. The rooms were so crowded last night that it required exertion to reach the tables. The tables are well stocked with fancy articles, children's toys, drums and many useful and ornamental articles. Among the special attractions are two gold watches and a diamond ring. The gold watches will be voted to two of the most popular gentlemen of the Church. The ring will be disposed of by chance. There are three tables and a refreshment room. At the Children of Mary's table Miss Eliza Nolan presides. She has a number of assistants. Mrs. J. Kiernan, Mrs. J. J. Albrecht and Mrs. J. Ring preside at the table of the Sacred Heart. Mrs. William Reynolds and Miss Mary O'Brien have charge of the refreshment table. Many articles were sold last night. A portion of the time was devoted to dancing. The floors were sufficiently cleared to give room to the dancers. This fair is for the purpose of raising money to reduce the church debt. Members of the congregation take great interest in it, and have furnished many articles. The Rev. Edward J. Conroy, Pastor of the Church, was present during a part of the evening and seemed well pleased with the success of the opening night.

OTHER CHRISTMAS GATHERINGS.

The members of the Rondout Quartette Club gathered around a heavily laden Christmas tree, in Englert's Hall, on Monday evening. The Society had a merry time.

Various other societies held pleasant gatherings.

IN THE THEATRES.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Fox-Kane and Professor Ransom, in Kingston Opera House, last evening, was not largely attended, and cannot be said to have been a success.

The Guy Brothers' Minstrels gave two excellent performances in Liscomb's Opera House, yesterday. Many of the "acts" were new, and all were above the average. It is a well balanced troupe, and was worthy of the patronage bestowed. The house was literally packed last night. Manager Liscomb should book more such shows.

BALLS LAST NIGHT.

The ball of the members of Weiner Hose Company, held in the Academy of Music, last night, was largely attended and enjoyable. A Committee from the Hobart Hose Company, of Hobart, Delaware County, attended.

Other balls held were largely attended.

PASTORS, PEOPLES AND CHURCHES.

The Rev. Isaac Peck, late of Flushing, L. I., is now Pastor of St. Paul's Church, Kinderhook.

On Sunday evening, the last of the present series of the Young People's prayer meetings in St. James Church, Kingston, will be held. Samuel D. Gibson will be leader, and the theme will be "Good Resolutions."

FATAL ACCIDENTS NOTED

BY CORRESPONDENTS OF THE "KINGSTON DAILY FREEMAN."

Two Brothers Killed on the D. & H. Railroad, Near Cooperstown Junction—A Man Named Vandemark Loses His Life, Etc.

"It is the unexpected that happens."

Correspondents of THE FREEMAN report accidents in Delaware and Ulster Counties and in this City as follows:

TWO BROTHERS KILLED.

The Oneonta correspondent of THE FREEMAN writes: On Monday, December 24, Henry and John VanWormer, two brothers, of the town of Maryland, Otsego County, were struck by a west-bound train on the Delaware & Hudson Railroad, about one mile below Cooperstown Junction, and instantly killed. The bodies were terribly mangled.

KILLED NEAR KERHONKSON.

Hiram Vandemark, of Kerkonkson, Ulster County, was at work near that village, yesterday, hoisting stone with a derrick on the Delaware & Hudson Canal. The "fall" of the derrick broke, allowing a large stone to fall on Vandermark. He was instantly killed.

OTHER MISHAPS REPORTED.

Mrs. Edward Merrihew, who resides on Washington-avenue, Kingston, while calling on a neighbor, accidentally fell down a staircase, and dislocated her shoulder, yesterday.

William Shay, a prominent resident of New-Hamburgh, fell from his carriage and was instantly killed on Monday. It is believed he was suffering from a stroke of apoplexy. The deceased is reported to have been worth from $50,000 to $60,000.

A smash up occurred on Albany-avenue, Kingston, yesterday afternoon. W. W. Hermance's wagon was run into by another vehicle. The rig of Hermance was overturned and he was thrown out. Mr. Hermance was rendered unconscious by the shock but soon recovered.

SHOT A TEAL ON THE HUDSON RIVER.

Rather an Unusual Capture Made by a Young Man While Hunting.

This forenoon Harry Coykendall, of Rondout, while hunting between cakes of ice in a boat on the Hudson River, captured a curiosity. He saw flying what he presumed to be a wild duck. He fired and the biped fell. The bird proved to be a teal, a web-footed water fowl nearly allied to the duck.

Teals are sometimes seen near streams in the Catskill Mountains, but it is seldom they are found looking for food on the Hudson River.

They are graceful flyers and dart into the water after a fish with lightning-like motion. The one shot by Mr. Coykendall is a fine specimen. Its feathers are of a bluish tint.

OTHER HUNTING AND FISHING STORIES

Albert Crawford caught 200 pounds of pickerel in the Wolf Pond, Sullivan County, in three days' time, recently.

A sucker was caught in the Schoharie Creek, at Gilboa, one day recently, that was 20 inches in length and weighed three and one-half pounds.

L. Somers, of Monticello, bagged a dozen partridges the other day without firing a shot. The birds were frozen to death by the recent cold snap, and Sullivan County hunters have reaped the benefit. The partridges were plump and said to be excellent eating.

A number of farmers in the vicinity of Windham have been greatly perplexed of late over a problem that until recently nobody in the neighborhood could solve. Night after night fowls would mysteriously disappear from barn yards and no trace be found of them anywhere. H. Kirtland, of Durham, was one of the heaviest losers, and though a man of over 70 years of age, he resolved to catch the thief. For two days and nights he kept watch on his coops. The third day he was about giving it up, when he saw a fox prowling around the premises. Reynard entered the coop and was just about pouncing on a fine, plump fowl, when Mr. Kirtland "went" for the depredator with a pitchfork. The fox was pinned to the ground and quickly dispatched. Three other foxes have been caught during the past week and now fowls are unmolested.

[From the New-Paltz Times.]

William H. Norton, of New-Paltz, owns one of the best fox hounds in Ulster County. Mr. Norton says the best place to find foxes is in the Tamarack swamp, north of Ohioville, after it is frozen over. A few days ago his hound followed a fox out of the swamp, and caught it before it had run a quarter of a mile. On a straight course and fresh track a fox hasn't foot enough to get away from said hound.

VARIOUS SPORTING MATTERS NOTED.

Newburgh's Athletic Tournament—Wrestling Match—$2,500 for a Colt.

Albany-avenue the past few days has been the scene of interesting contests.

A large deer was seen on the Pintler farm, in Sullivan County, one day recently.

On Christmas Day a number of Kingston City bicyclers took a spin on Albany and Union-avenues.

A five-year-old colt has been purchased at Pontiac, Mich., by the proprietors of the Hudson River Driving Park, at Poughkeepsie, for $2,500.

A wrestling match took place, Monday evening, in Newburgh, between Lucien Marc Christol, who traveled recently with Barnum's circus, where he performed the feat of lifting a horse, and Thomas Martin, of that City.

In reporting the recent Athletic Tournament at Newburgh, the Register says: "The running broad jump was won by Lewis Hoffman, who made 16 feet, nine inches, with John P. Fitzpatrick, second, and Henry R. Swivel, third."

NEWSPAPERS AND NEWSPAPER MEN.

Mourning in the Office of the "Wurtsboro Dispatch"—A Paper's New Dress.

The New-Paltz Times was printed on Monday, this week, on account of "the Christmas holiday."

The Poughkeepsie Sunday Courier gives evidence of the appreciation of its excellencies by appearing in a new dress at the close of the year 1888.

Hammond Lamont, a son of the Rev. Thomas Lamont, of Rondout, will be the new City Editor of the Albany Express, which is now the property of William Barnes, Jr.

The Wurtsboro Dispatch office is in mourning over the untimely fate of a turtle. It did not seem to be bright and agile as usual, a day or two ago, and it crawled for seclusion under the press. The turtle was gently lifted away, but unseen by its friend, the pressman, it crawled back again, and one of the rockers crushed it. The turtle was a pet with every one in the office, from the "devil" up, and grief was evinced when the news went around that "Jumbo" was no more. It was a wonderfully "knowing" turtle, and every morning it would protrude its head as if bowing in welcome to every arrival. One or two particular favorites in the office it would follow around as though seeking a "take," word or pat of commendation.

A Young Cook Uses Kerosene.

While alone in the house Bessie Van Wick, a young daughter of James C. Van Wick, of Cold Spring on-the-Hudson, was preparing the Christmas dinner, yesterday, the fire becoming low, Bessie in order to rekindle it poured kerosene on the embers. The house and all its contents, including $500 in money, were destroyed leaving her father homeless and penniless. There was no insurance.

NEAT AND CLEAR-HEADED MEN

Abhor the idea of an attack of catarrh as they do the bite of a poison snake. Yet this foul and most disgusting disease is very common. In its first stages it occasions very little discomfort and is therefore liable to be neglected. It is an inflammation of the lining membrane of the mouth, nose and throat. The glands and membranes secrete a fluid to keep the mouth, nose and eyes moist. From cold, debility and other causes this fluid is apt to be too copious; that is catarrh. Flowing from the nostrils it causes weak and watery eyes, irritates the nose, causes sneezing and finally the coughing up and expectoration of the offensive matter. These droppings will sometimes collect so rapidly as nearly to choke the person. Unless promptly treated catarrh lasts for years, producing dreadful results. The ordinary symptoms are pain in the eyes and in the forehead over the eyes; a dull heavy headache; obstruction of the nasal passages; discharges falling into the throat, and a moist, offensive breath. On the first sign of its appearance Dr. Brown's Sarsaparilla should be taken to purify the blood, for catarrh is a blood disease. In chronic cases an immediate cure must not be expected; but this great regulator of the blood will, if its use be continued, afford speedy relief and final cure. Hay fever, or cold in the head, a disease of summer chiefly, has similar symptoms and is cured by this remedy in the same way. It is important to remember that catarrh, being neglected, or arrested, gradually creeps down into the wind pipe and lungs and may end in incurable consumption. You may easily and cheaply prevent this terrible calamity by the use of

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE city of Richmond, Va., celebrated Christmas with a brilliant display of fireworks. They had been bought to be used after Cleveland's election, but the management concluded that it would be useless to keep them longer.

FRANK J. MYERS attempted to close an iron shutter in a restaurant at Toledo yesterday, and was struck dead. The shutter on being moved came in contact with a poorly insulated electric light wire. Tragedies of this variety are much too frequent.

EVEN on Christmas day Mr. Cleveland had no callers at the White House, and he and his wife ate their dinner alone. All the members of the Cabinet were equally lonesome except Mr. Endicott, who spent the day at his home in Salem, Massachusetts.

COLUMBUS DELANO of Ohio, President of the National Wool Growers Association, has called a meeting of the representative wool growers of the United States to be held in Washington January 10th. He says the wool schedule in the Senate bill fails to afford adequate protection to the industry.

THE Utica Morning Herald takes Judge Parker severely to task for his statement to a Tribune correspondent in reference to the use of money in Ulster county elections. It quotes THE FREEMAN'S denial of the bribery story, and criticises Judge Parker unsparingly.

THE Methodist clergymen of Columbus, Ohio, have declared against the inauguration ball as a "relic of barbarism," and chosen the election of a Christian man to the Presidency as a fitting occasion for condemning "the tendencies to imitate the follies, displays, pageantry and extravagance of European courts." They think that $100,000 is too big a price to pay for such folly.

EX-SENATOR ARKELL proposes to disfranchise the voter who is found guilty of accepting a bribe. This looks like another scheme for breaking up the Democratic party. Unless nine-tenths of the Democratic accusations of the use of money at elections are lies, then that party has been compelled to buy up its own voters. They deserve to be disfranchised of course. But then, where would Democratic votes come from?

A FARMER named Hobbs was shot dead in the door of his house at Birdseye, Ind., last Saturday night, by White Caps, because he had gathered testimony against the order and urged their prosecution. Several murders of this kind have occured in the state, but no efficient measures for the punishment and suppression of the criminals have been adopted. The difference between the methods of Gov. Foraker and Gov. Gray in dealing with the White Caps is characteristic of the general difference of efficiency between Republican and Democratic administrations.

THE steamer Haytien Republic was very willingly given up by the Haytien authorities on the appearance of the American men-of-war off Port au Prince. A polite telegram from Mr. Bayard would have accomplished the same result and saved quite an item of expense. But then the opportunity to bully a power of about the same size of Bayard himself would have been missed. The war record of the administration now embraces Mexico, Morocco and Hayti. There is yet time to send an expedition against Monaco.

DEMOCRATS who are to be thrust out of office by Cleveland's defeat, as well as hundreds who have been kept out in the cold, are turning to Gov. Hill for consolation. He has within his appointment during the coming year, subject of course to confirmation by the Senate, about 28 pretty fat offices. The best of these, Health Officer of New York, pays a salary of $10,000. Then there is one of $7,500, one of $7,000, two of $3,000, one of $5,000, one of $4,000, one of $3,500, two of $3,000, fifteen of $2,500 and others less value. But these will not go around. There is a "heap of trouble" awaiting the Governor during the coming session of the Legislature.

MRS. ANNA KELLY brought her dead baby to a New York police station early Christmas morning, explaining that it had died of hunger and cold in the doorway of a tenement house where the parents had crept for shelter. Kelly and his wife, who had been in the United States six months, had sought for work everywhere and been repulsed, and even the various Catholic missions for charity had turned them away. Father Kelly of the Mission of the Holy Rosary, told them that he could do nothing for them, and informed them that they had no right to bring children into the world when they were unable to care for them. So the baby died on Christmas. "Alas for the rarity of Christian charity."

"JONES of Binghamton," whose recent election proved him a more popular gentleman than Gov. Hill, will be the first man since 1839 to hold the office of Lieutenant Governor for six years. John Tracy was elected on the ticket with Gov. Marcy for three successive terms of two years each. The longest service in the office since was that of William Dorsheimer, who was chosen to a two years' terms with Gov. Tilden and re-elected to a three years term with Governor Robinson. The early Lieutenant Governors served longer. Pierre Van Cortlandt held the office during George Clinton's long service of eighteen years as the first Governor under the constitution; John Broome was Lieutenant-Governor from 1804 till his death in 1811, and John Taylor from 1818 to 1823, serving as Governor from the advancement of Gov. Tompkins to the Vice Presidency in March, 1817, till the election of DeWitt Clinton in the following July. If Jones's popularity shall increase sufficiently to bring him the nomination and election to the Governorship in 1891, Mr. Hill will not be the candidate of his party for President.

EXPLOSION IN A TAP MILL.

Tap Cinder Exploded When it Came in Contact With Water, this Morning, in W. Va.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Dec. 26.—This town was visited by a conflagration last night that devoured the entire business portion of the town, covering about 12 acres. The fire was first discovered in the house furnishings store of D. B. H. Powers, on Pleasant-street, at about 10 o'clock. The exact cause of the fire is unknown. The first warning was given by a loud explosion of naphtha in the store. The alarm was quickly rung in and immediately followed by a second and third. When the firemen reached the burning building it fell with a mighty crash. It was a wooden structure and was rapidly consumed. The firemen did their best to hold the flames in check, but their efforts amounted to nothing. The buildings surrounding the structure were mere shells, and it seemed as if a fire started wherever a spark fell. In 15 minutes from the time the first alarm was given the entire business portion was a sea of flame. The fire raged fiercely, and the two fire companies were wholly unable to execute the task they were called upon to perform. Assistance was summoned from Lynn, Salem and Swampscott, and these towns quickly responded. The entire shoe manufacturing district, the principal business section of the town, was burned to the ground. Fully 60 buildings were consumed. The people were frantic, and rushed to and fro as though crazed. The flames spread with such rapidity that scarcely anything was saved. The tenents residing in the dwelling-houses were completely cleaned out, and as they stood watching their homes burn they presented a pitiable sight. It looked at one time as though the entire place was doomed. At this time help from Salem, Lynn and Swampscott arrived and put new life into the cheerless workers. The City was flooded with strangers from all of the surrounding towns. On Pleasant-street the dwelling houses of Nathan Pitman, Asa Blaney, the Boston & Maine depot, Cole Brothers' shoe factory, the horse car station, Stacey's drug store, Jonathan Bourne's woolen factory, a large structure four stories high, and numerous small buildings were reduced to ashes. On the opposite side Joseph Lefavre's dwelling house, H. O. Symonds hardware store, the Grand Army Hall and the Fire Department headquarters, a magnificent brick building, the Rialto block, C. Gregory's drug store, the Boston branch grocery store and the dry goods store of George Graves were destroyed. On Essex-street the flames destroyed Allerton Hall and the immense wooden factory of E. H. Woodbury, shoe manufacturer. Allerton Hall is occupied as a shoe factory by Jonathan Orne. The factory of Jacob H. Cropley & Bro. on Essex street, Peace's shoe factory and the houses of Dennis and Jacob Pipe were reduced to smouldering ruins. On Spring-street the fire swept on destroying the residences and a factory of W. C. Lafavre. Its progress was checked at the Sewell Grammar School building. Sweeping across Spring-street the flames consumed the handsome dwelling of Dr. Whittemore. Here the flames changed their course, and sweeping on to Sewell-street it completely destroyed everything in the rear of Pleasant-street, taking everything clean up on both sides of the railroad tracks. The residences of Mr. Chamberlain and the late Thomas F. Crossman, Paine's livery stables, Thomas Rix's fruit stand and numerous small buildings were burned to the ground. At 3 o'clock the fire was under control though yet burning fiercely. This stolid old burg, in June, 1877, was visited by a fire which swept over nearly the same district. During the progress of the present fire several explosions were heard. Fully 1,000 workmen are thrown out of employment. The number of buildings consumed is between 50 and 60.

The loss by the fire of last night is estimated at $800,000. Many families are temporarily homeless. Thirty-seven structures in all were destroyed, including manufactories, prominent blocks and business houses. Thirteen of these were dwellings, 12 shoe factories and 12 miscellaneous. Had it not been for prompt assistance from other towns the loss would have been much greater. For a while there was a panic among the inhabitants, who packed up their household goods in anticipation of the destruction of the town. The fire could be seen for miles. So quickly did the flames spread that whole blocks were ruined in less than 15 minutes, and the heat was intense. Between eight and nine acres were burned over. It is strange that no lives were lost as the streets were thronged with people in and around the burned district.

Charles Choate, who broke a leg by jumping from a second-story window, was the only person injured. The heat was so great that curbstones cracked and crumbled, car rails were twisted out of shape, tall chimneys fell with terrific crashes and boilers exploded with the force of cannon. The water supply was inadequte, and at times some of the steamers were unable to perform effective work. None of the manufacturers think it possible to rebuild this winter, and there is a general feeling of depression. Some of the losses, as stated by the victims themselves, are as follows: F. W. & J. W. Monroe, building $25,000, machinery, $15,000, stock, $40,000, well insured; J. M. Cropley, on stock and machinery, $80,000, insurance, $50,000; B. E. Cole, $100,000; C. A. Slee, $1,800; J. H. Howe, $15,000, insurance, $10,000; B. H. Howe, branch grocery, $6,000, insurance, $3,000; Bridges & Carroll, $10,000 insurance $5,000; Caswell & Shattuck $1,500, insurance $600; Rachabite Hall $12,000, insurance $8,000. The charter of Philanthropic Lodge of Free Masons, next to the oldest in the State, was burned.

OTHER FIRES ELSEWHERE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BOSTON, Dec. 26.—Samuel Walker's oil store, at 38 Clinton-street, the hardware store of Sargent, Wild & Co., and J. B. Plummer's wooden ware store, adjoining, were badly damaged by fire this morning.

DANVILLE, Va., Dec. 26.—At South Coston yesterday the large tobacco factory of J. W. Easley was burned. The factory was occoupied by Norman and Evans and contained a stock of old tobacco valued at $35,000. It was feared at one time that the whole town would be destroyed.

Factories, dwelling houses and other property, covering three acres, were destroyed by fire in Cincinnati, yesterday; total loss over $300,000.

NOT A MERRY CHRISTMAS FOR THEM.

Accidents Reported at Points West—Panic in a Church at Geneva, Etc.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Three fatalities and a number of minor casualities resulting from accidents at Christmas festivities in this vicinity are reported.

At Geneva John M. Stillwell was impersonating Santa Claus at a church festival. His costume caught fire from a candle and Stillwell was fatally burned. There was a panic in the church, several women and children being badly bruised.

At Danville T. W. Smith dressed himself as Santa Claus making a liberal use of cotton batting, and then set to work to light a Christmas tree. The cotton took fire and Smith was horribly burned.

At Milwaukee Mrs. Leidel went to a store, leaving her children in bed. Her four year old boy got out of bed and started to light the candles on the Christmas tree, which he had seen illuminated the night before. His night dress took fire and he ran back to bed with his clothes burning. The bed clothes took fire and burned rapidly. The mother came home in time to rescue another child which was asleep in the bed. The little boy died shortly afterward.

Conference Between Northern and Southern Assemblies of Presbyterian Church.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 26.—The Conference between the committees from the Southern and Northern General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church has been fixed for Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. None of the Southern men are yet here. The object of the Conference is to secure perfect co-operation between the assemblies in lieu of union which cannot be effected at present. These members of the Northern Committee are in session to-day considering matters that will come up at Friday's meeting.

Row at a Colored Ball.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Dec. 26.—Spencer Bryant, colored, was killed last night at a colored ball by Joseph Caxton, also colored. Dancing was going on, when a pistol shot was heard and then another. A man who was standing next to Bryant says he heard no quarreling, and the first he knew of the matter was hearing the shot and seeing Caxton holding Bryant by the collar and using the pistol. The victim died instantly. Caxton was captured. He says he was attacked suddenly by several men at the ball, and fired the pistol in self-defense.

They were Professional Shop-lifters.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BUFFALO, Dec. 26.—A detective left for Albany this morning to obtain a requisition from Governor Hill for the two women arrested at Cleveland, last week, on a charge of stealing a diamond bracelet, valued at $400, at the store of T. & E. Dickinson, in this City. The prisoners gave their names as Catherine Powers and Caroline Smith, but have been identified as two professional shop-lifters, known as Ann Riley and "Little Louise," of New-York.

Shot in a Drunken Row.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

HARRODSBURGH, Ky., Dec. 26.—Joshua Briscoe, colored, got into a drunken row yesterday and policemen Smith and Waggonen attempted to arrest him. Briscoe resisted and his colored mistress attacked the officers also. Briscoe broke loose and was trying to fire a gun at the officers when Waggonen shot him through the heart. A Coroner's jury returned a verdict justifying the killing.

A Trade Crisis in England.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—A crisis appears to be imminent in the Belton Cotton trade. Numbers of employes are already on strike and refuse to return to work until their demands are complied with. The masters complain of bad work and threaten to order a general lockout unless the work is improved and the strikers return to work. The operatives are amply supplied with funds and defy the masters.

A Charge of Larceny.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 26.—Herman S. Scheyer, commission merchant, made a charge of larceny, to-day, against his cousin, Adolph Wittstock, a clerk in his store, and had him locked up. Wittstock, who had been left in charge of the store while his employer went to Europe, stole over $3,000 worth of goods, which he converted into cash and spent the money.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 26.—The stock market opened this morning with a very active business and first prices were all up from Monday's close ½ and ½ per cent. The Vanderbilts were the strong feature of the dealings and Lake Shore was specially conspicuous by reason of the strength displayed, rising 1 per cent. on an usually large business. Big four also rose a like amount. The market exhibited no special feature, but remained active without further change of importance.

MORE DEMOCRATIC EDUCATION.

The Executive Committee of the Associated Democratic Clubs of the United States has issued a manifesto in which an attempt is made to explain the Democratic defeat and to evolve therefrom a plan of campaign for 1892. It starts off with the assertion that "the workingmen stood firmly by the Democracy, as may be seen by a careful examination of the returns from manufacturing centres." Now this is an infamous lie, a libel upon the intelligent workingmen of the country. The manufacturing centres, meaning the cities that decided the election, with very few exceptions increased their Republican vote. This was the case in St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Pittsburg and Brooklyn. With the exception of New York, where the slum vote grows more rapidly than that of the workingmen, and Albany, which is not a manufacturing but a political city, the cities of this state gave Harrison a larger vote than Blaine, and virtually decided the election. The Democratic assertion has for its foundation only New York, already mentioned, and Philadelphia, where Mr. Blaine had a personal strength that can probably never be equaled by any other candidate. The Republican party can not afford to let this falsehood to go unrebuked. It owes a duty the faithful and intelligent workingmen who came over to the Republican party by thousands and made victory easy and sure.

The committee discovers that the admission of the territories into the Union and the change of representation consequent upon the census of 1890 will "broaden the contest," but it proposes to fight the battle from Maine to California on the same lines as those of 1888. Here is its assertion of principles:

To preserve the Constitution of the United States, the autonomy of the states, local self-government and freedom of elections; to resist revolutionary changes and the centralization of power; to oppose the imposition of taxes beyond the necessities of government economically administered; to promote economy in all branches of the public service; to oppose unnecessary commercial restrictions for the benefit of the few at the expense of the many; to oppose class legislation, which despoils labor and builds up monopoly; and to maintain inviolate the fundamental principle of Democratic equality before the law.

It further proposes to strike down the two arms of monopoly—"bribery and corruption." It adds the rather trite lamentation that the defeat of its party was due to "Republican misrepresentation and the effect of enormous sums of money handled by the most corrupt and efficient partisan organization ever known in this country." This charge of corruption against the Republican party will make the people smile. It comes from a party whose representative politicians crowd the prison of almost every Northern state, which has made a most contemptible fizzle of its only attempt—the one just come to an end in Indiana—to convict a Republican of bribery, and whose only President elected in 28 years was forced to go to these same prisons to find enough Democrats to fill the offices.

The club gives notice that it is going to begin an educational campaign among the farmers. The accusation that it makes against the workingmen, of standing by the Democratic party, it has not the audacity to repeat against the tillers of the soil. Well, let the enlightening process proceed. We shall see what will come of it—what impression the political bummers of the country, the men who toil not neither do they spin, whose sole hope in life is the acquisition of a fat office, are able to make upon the men who till the soil, guide our factories and commerce, build our railroads, and put into activity the capital and genius that double the nation's wealth and greatness once in every twenty-five years. The end, we believe, will show that the Democratic party stands most in need of education, and that it made a great mistake in not accepting the lesson of 1888 as the deliberate verdict of a people who know what they are doing.

SOME SOUTHERN REPUBLICANS.

The Democratic party at the North affects to believe that there is no good Republican Cabinet timber at the South. But prominent Democrats of that section have undertaken to assist Gen. Harrison in making a selection and are prepared to vouch for the high character and entire fitness of a sufficient number of men to stock several Cabinets without any assistance from the North. Senator Vance, after remarking that the late Judge Settle was the ablest Republican in North Carolina, asserted that H. S. F. Phillips, ex-Solicitor General, would pre-eminently grace a Cabinet seat. Equally complimentary remarks were made by Senator Jones of Arkansas respecting Powell Clayton and United States Judge Caldwell; while Senator Colquitt mentioned A. E. Buck, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Georgia; Senator Harris mentioned District Attorney Murray and Samuel Watson of Tennessee; Congressman Oates named ex-Chief Justice Rice and Gen. Willard Warner of Alabama; Representative Tillman named Samuel Melton of South Carolina; Representative Shaw mentioned Congressman McComas and Editor Agnus of Maryland, while Judges McCormick and Bell of Texas were named by different Representatives from that state.

These do not include all the well known and respected Republicans of the South. It has occasionally looked as if Gen. Henderson of Missouri, Wm. O. Bradley of Kentucky and Gen. Goff of West Virginia stood nearer to a Cabinet position than any of them, to say nothing of the universally admitted ability of Gen. Mahone of Virginia. Gen. Benjamin Harrison of Indiana will make the final selection. We do not doubt that he will give some sort of recognition to the South. And it is infinitely more important that he recognize the right of the party which these men lead to cast a free vote and have that vote honestly counted than it is to place the ablest of their number in his official family.

KICKING THE MAN WHO IS DOWN.

The Tribune's London correspondent sends the news that there will be no minister to the United States appointed in Sackville's place till after Harrison's inauguration. This is intended as a rebuke to Mr. Cleveland for his scandalous treatment of the late minister. Cleveland is given to understand that he is being insulted and snubbed. The correspondent complains of the President's indifference. It is his duty to recall Mr. Phelps at once, but there is no sign that this is to be done. Phelps remains to bear in his person the insult intended for his superior.

Salisbury will not gain the respect of the American people by his contemptuous way of kicking a man when he is down. Nothing is better known on this side of the Atlantic than that the Sackville dismissal was conducted with great regard for Salisbury's feelings; that it did not take place until he had become convinced that it was necessary as a part of the Democratic campaign, had given his full consent. Mr. Cleveland would undoubtedly have fared better at the polls if he had given Sackville his passports on the day that the Murchison letter appeared, and provoked Salisbury to indignant remonstrance and a threat of war even if it had been feigned. Mr. Cleveland does not deserve the unkind treatment that he is receiving from the government of the "mother country." And he would not receive it if he were going to remain in office four years more. It is the shallow expedient of a shallow Briton to curry favor with the next administration.

Undoubtedly a due respect for the dignity of the American nation would require the recall of Minister Phelps, who of necessity is out of favor with the British government and denied the official recognition which is due to his position; but not much need be expected of the President during the rest of his term except the performance of the routine duties of his office. He is too unhappy over his defeat to feel that keen interest in public affairs that he manifested before the election. If he were actually endeavoring to show himself of no account, a mere dummy in office, he could not succeed better in that direction than he is doing. The Chicago Tribune's Washington correspondent finds him almost wholly abandoned by his own party, and the White House practically deserted and as lonesome as a tomb. The biggest accident in American politics is showing himself the biggest failure. When the British government turns its back upon him, who is there so low as to do him reverence? And yet this is not a state of affairs to be deplored. Having chosen to let things drift to the end of his term, the country confidently expects him to be harmless.

The Bride Smiled.

[From the Birmingham Age.]

An amusing incident occurred at the Union depot yesterday afternoon, and furnished fun for a large number of passengers. A rather modest-looking groom and his pretty bride were sitting delightfully close together, and were going through some of those lovable little antics which newly married couples alone can affect. Two young men were sitting just opposite waiting to welcome some sweetheart on the incoming train. The boys watched the caresses of the couple for a while, but finally decided to put a stop to it.

"Tom," said one of the young men to the other, "when is your wife coming home?"

"Never, I hope," replied the young man addressed. "I wish she would elope with some one, or the train would run off the bridge with her. By the way, when is your wife coming home?"

"Pretty soon, I am afraid. When she does, I have a good mind to meet her at the depot with an axe and give her and that infernal kid 10 minutes to leave in. A wife is a nuisance, anyway."

The young men kept up this nonsense for half an hour, and the loving couple knew that all of the conversation was intended for their ears. It tickled the bride immensely, but the groom got hotter and hotter, and finally called one of the young men aside and threatened to whip him. This had the effect of stilling the fun permanently, and the exultant groom bravely put his arm around his treasure and hugged her until the train carried them away on their bridal tour.

Mr. Fuller's Matrimonial Score.

[Rockford, Ill., dispatch to St. Louis Republic.]

Levi D. Fuller, of Cortland, De Kalb county, was in town, to-day, with his seventh wife, a red-headed, matronly-looking woman named Emeline Loomis. Fuller's first wife was Jane Maxwell. A divorce separated them. Alvira Clark was the second wife. She died. Nettie Moore was Fuller's wife three months, and then sought and secured a divorce. Fuller's fourth wife was Mrs. Elizabeth Cynthia Davis. One night the woman's former husband crawled into Fuller's bedroom and shot him in the leg. A divorce followed. Mollie Bishop was Fuller's fifth wife. She involved her husband in a stabbing affray, and was then released from the matrimonial yoke by a divorce court. Lotta Ray was Fuller's sixth wife, and she eloped with a brakeman.

Fuller's diary shows this interesting table: Replies to advertisements, 1,100; number of photographs exchanged, 400; proposals, 119; accepted, 85; rejected, 34; married, 7; divorced, 4; paid breach of promise damages, 1; married by minister, 1; married by justice, 6; shot at, 1; stabbed, 1; time of game, 25 years.

Fuller was engaged to seven women at one time. The only girl that ever went back on him was Carrie Smith of Dubuque. Six of his wives were blondes and one was a brunette. He leaves for home to morrow.

INTERESTED PEOPLE.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50 cents and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THE POWER OF INK.

"A small drop of ink, falling, like dew, upon a thought, proclaims that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think," wrote Byron. The inspiration of his pen might give the dusky fluid such a far-reaching power, and we wish we were possessed of such an inspiration, that we might, through a like medium, bring into such extended notice the matchless virtues of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, those tiny, sugar-coated granules which contain, in a concentrated form, the active principles of vegetable extracts that Dame Nature destined especially to promote a hearty action of the liwer, stomach and bowels.

MAKE NO MISTAKE.—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion and preparation, curative power superior to any other article of the kind before the people. For all affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system it is unequalled. Be sure to get Hood's.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh by expelling impurity from the blood, which is the cause of complaint. Give it a trial.

MY WIFE SAID

To me last night: How much do you suppose we have paid out for doctors and medicine in the last year? I told her I did not know. To doctors I have paid nothing, and five dollars' worth of Sulphur Bitters has kept health in our family. L. Andrews, 12 Bowdoin-street, Boston.

A WOMAN'S DISCOVERY.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this County. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at Van Deusen Bros. and F. J. R. Clarke's drug stores.

HOW I SUFFERED.

Seventeen Years from a Skin Disease. Could Not Walk or Dress Myself. A Mass of Disease from Head to Foot. Cured in Eight Weeks by the Cuticura Remedies

At the age of three months a rash [which afterwards proved to be eczema or salt rheum] made its appearance on my face. A physician was called. He said teething was the cause; he prescribed some cooling medicine, but the sores spread to my ears and head. Another M. D. was called. He professed to know all about the case, called it "King's Evil," and prescribed gunpowder, brimstone and lard mixed into a salve; but the disease continued. They could not do anything with it. Another prescribed borax, water and flour; another linseed poultices. None of them did me any good at all, but made me worse. The disease continued unabated; it spread to my arms and legs, till I was laid up entirely and from continually sitting on the floor on a pillow my limbs contracted so that I lost all control of them and was utterly helpless. My mother would have to lift me out and into bed. I could get around the house on my hands and feet, but I could not get my clothes on at all and had to wear a sort of dressing gown. My hair had all matted down or fallen off and my head, face and ears were one scab, and I had to have a towel on my head all the time in the summer to keep the flies off. My parents consulted a prominent physician and surgeon in Chicago [the other physicians before mentioned were of Dundas and Hamilton, Canada]. He said he could do nothing for me. He wanted to cut the sinews of my legs so that I could walk, but I would not let him, for if I did get better I would have no control of them.

The disease continued in this manner until I was 17 years old, and one day in January, 1879, I read an account in the Tribune of your Cuticura Remedies. It described my case so exactly that I thought, as a last resort, to give them a trial.

When I first applied them I was all raw and bleeding, from scratching myself, but I went asleep almost immediately, something I had not done for years, the effect was so soothing.

In about two weeks I could stand straight, but not walk, I was so weak, but my sores were nearly well. As near as I can judge the Cuticura Remedies cured me in about six to eight weeks and up to this date [i. e. from January, 1879, to January, 1887] I have not been sick in any way, or have had the least signs of the disease reappearing on me.

Constitutional Catarrh.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind,—one or more and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and an IMPROVED INHALER, price $1.

★ OH! MY HEAD!! ★

Suffering of a New Jersey Senator—Dyspepsia, Sick Headache—Terrible Things.

When the stomach is torpid it soon becomes clogged with half digested matters, the blood becomes vitiated and foul; the other organs fail to act normally and induces a train of symptoms, such as dyspepsia, sick headache, dizziness, drowsiness, palpitation of the heart, pain in the back, loss of appetite.

"There are few things that I believe in with all my heart and it affords me pleasure to tell of one of them." The speaker was ex-Senator Albert Merritt, head of the large fruit firm, 82 Park Place, N. Y., and the scene his office. "I was sick and feared I had become fated to endure the

And a dangerous affection of the kidneys. A relative said to me, 'Why don't you try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y.' I did so. I grew steadily better. I could eat, digest, sleep, and work with a clearer head and the yellow color of my skin had given place to the tones that announce pure blood and every organ of the body in healthy action. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is entitled to the credit of saving my life. If any one has a doubt about the truth of my statements let him write to me. I can give you the names and addresses of fifty persons who affirm, as I do, that 'Favorite Remedy' has been to them a help and a blessing in time of need." A. DeRevere, Tarrytown N. Y., says: "For a long time I was troubled with severe attacks of dizziness and

Blind Sick Headache

Due to impure blood and a disordered state of the system. I was advised to try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y. I did so and have been completely cured. It's the best thing I ever heard of for any disorder of that nature and I have recommended it to many with like successs." Daniel Fitts, Taunton, Mass., says: "I recommend Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy for dysyepsia and sick headache. I suffered for many years with these complaints and was cured by

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy."

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

POLICE DEPARTMENT, POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 23.

T. B. Johnston.

DEAR SIR—Please accept thanks for the information given in regard to Brophy. He was arrested in company with a young fellow named Quinn on charge of petty larceny. Quinn was sent for three months and Brophy two months in the Albany Penitentiary. Yours respectfully,

He Had "Lots" of Apples.

A Kingston woman answered a ring of her front door bell on Christmas morning here. She found at the door a small boy.

"Merry Christmas!" said the boy.

"Thank you," answered the woman. The boy waited with an expectant look.

"I have nothing but some apples to give you," said the woman, "would you like some?"

"No," said the boy gruffly, "I've got lots of 'em."

How Polanders Celebrated.

Christmas night was made hideous on Union-street, Rondout. A party of Polanders from Rosendale in the forenoon visited the homes of their countrymen living on that thoroughfare. The Polanders' Christmas cheer consisted of drinking beer, and when the shades of night arrived they were all in a mellow condition and began fighting.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

To make children healthy use plenty of air, plenty of milk, plenty of sleep, and always have a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in case of croup.

Do not despair of curing your sick headache when you can so easily obtain Carter's Little Liver Pills. They will effect a prompt and permanent cure. Their action is mild and natural.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

RHEUMATISM

Is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips and wrist. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

FOR DYSPEPSIA and Liver Complaint, you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY,

Discoverer and Proprietor of Cherry Balsam, is not in a position to risk his reputation upon the success or failure of any preparation as to whose merits a single doubt exists in his own mind, and in recommending the Cherry Balsam for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all bronchial pulmonary affections, he does so with the greatest confidence, having had the most gratifying results follow the use of Cherry Balsam, which he has prescribed for a long time in his private practice. The value of this preparation cannot be overestimated, and even were Dr. Kennedy's own assurance incredible the testimony of the hosts who have used it cannot be impeached. Cherry Balsam will prove effective in many cases of Incipient Consumption; also in Bronchitis and Asthma, where other preparations have not even afforded relief.

It is prompt in its effects, and is therefore a most reliable medicine to use in all complaints such as Croup, Whooping Cough and Hoarseness. A careful trial of Cherry Balsam will prove its superiority over similar preparations.

Had the lone creature used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—the sure remedy for the weaknesses and peculiar ailments of her sex—she might have secured the deacon's favor by the cheerful character of her verses.

FOUND DEAD.

Last evening a person giving the name of G. R. Thompson registered at Hunt's Hotel, and desired to be called in season to take the 12 P. M. train for Chicago. Being unable to awaken him, the room was entered by means of the ventilator over the door, when the gentleman was found to be dead. He was advertising agent for Sulphur Bitters, which has an extensive sale. The coroner returned a verdict of death from heart disease. His body will be sent east immediately.—Cincinnati Commercial.

DON'T YOU KNOW

that you cannot afford to neglect that catarrh? Don't you know that it may lead to consumption, to insanity, to death? Don't you know that it can be easily cured? Don't you know that while the thousand and one nostrums you have tried have utterly failed that Dr. Sage's Cartarrh Remedy is a certain cure? It has stood the test of years, and there are hundreds of thousands of grateful men and women in all parts of the country who can testify to its efficacy. All druggists.

A MOTHER GOOSE MONUMENT.

"Boston wants to erect a monument to Mother Goose," says a Western editor: "Let the geese contribute the funds." The testimony of thousands establishes the fact that Dr. Tutt's Pills, followed by quinine, is a permanet cure for chills and fever. "Our physicians prescribe them in their practice," writes I. H. Athey, Holly Springs, Miss. A monument to Dr. Tutt could, no doubt, be readily raised in almost any malarial district. The contributors could be the grateful thousands who have been cured by these pills.

One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a dollar a bottle, at VanDeusen Brothers', Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston, drug stores.

CHRONICLES OF THIS CITY.

TO-DAY'S LOCAL NEWS, AND SOME NOTE AND COMMENT.

Business Transacted in Two Courts in Kingston—Wedding Bells in Ponckhockie—The Prevalent Unseasonable Weather—Shot a Teal.

Some said, "John print it," others said, "Not So."
Some said, "It might do good," others said "No."
—John Bunyan's Apology.

PREVALENT PHENOMENAL WEATHER.

Some Queer Freaks in the Animal, Insect and Vegetable Kingdoms Noted.

The balmy, spring-like weather of the past two days has resulted in furnishing some odd sights in the animal, insect, and vegetation kingdoms.

This afternoon, when the sun shone hot and strong at a number of points along the Hudson River, bees came out of their hives and buzzed around on industry bent, as merrily as though it were mid-summer in place of mid-winter.

From Hudson comes the story that a butterfly was caught in one of the streets there.

There are farmers who say they would not be at all surprised to see grass sprout if the prevalent weather continues many days longer. Buds were found on an elm tree at South Rondout this afternoon, and at various other places freaks of nature in vegetable life have been noted.

The hot sun has caused the ice on the Hudson River to become somewhat porous, and the hopes of Superintendents of large ice gathering concerns that the fields will break up and flow southward may be realized within a very short period of time. The ice is very muddy and is worthless for storing purposes.

Various "oldest inhabitants" here and in the Catskill Mountains were asked this afternoon if they had ever seen such weather before. One old man said: "Yes, and once only in this section of the country. On Christmas Day, 11 years ago, the weather was warm like that of yesterday. Through the greater portion of January high temperature prevailed. There was not a particle of snow, and the grass was as green as green could be. Honey bees came out just as they have come out to day. Fires were unnecessary in houses for heating purposes. Doors and windows were wide open, and people felt tired and sleepy like. I remember one man who had some threshing to do, who said he would not do it till the weather grew colder. It was too warm to work. I put some of my men at work in a quarry and they perspired freely, although they had divested themselves of coats and waistcoats."

The year 1888 will go down into the annals as having been one of the most remarkable ones from a meteorological point of view, so far as the present generation of men upon the earth are concerned.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, KINGSTON.

Business Transacted Before Judge Mayham—Several Interesting Decisions.

In the Circuit Court, Kingston, on Monday afternoon, the following disposition was made of cases: No. 15, Michael Mitchell vs. Daniel Driscoll, and No. 6, Ann C. Ostrander vs. John C. Washburn, over the term; No. 16, Leslie H. Newman vs. Henry McNamee, and No. 17, Addison J. Wilkinson vs. Henry McNamee, complaints dismissed, without costs.

In the case of the Ulster County Savings Institution vs. Rienzi Lasher, an appeal from Justice's Court was argued. Decision reserved.

No. 160, John H. Schreiber vs. Emma L. Brigham et al., and No. 120, George W. Dunn vs. George C. White, referred to C. F. Cantine.

Judge Mayham gave a verbal decision in the case of Daniel E. Donovan vs. John S. DeWitt, Administrator, et al. Donovan in buying real estate assumed the payment of a mortgage. Supposing the interest was 7 per cent., he paid that amount for some time. Later he ascertained that the rate of interest was 6 per cent., and brought the action asking that the excess of interest be applied on the principal. Decision in favor of plaintiff. No costs allowed.

Jurors discharged.

The Court was convened again, this afternoon. Equity cases were called for trial.

The case of Barley against Roosa was tried; action for ejectment.

FROZEN TO DEATH IN SAUGERTIES.

Horrible End of a Woman Named Stevens—No Food in Her Stomach.

Ann Stevens, who for several years lived in a parsimonious manner in a tenement, in Saugerties, has been found frozen to death in her squalid room. Coroner Kemble was notified. Dr. S. L. Dawes made a post mortem examination. He found the stomach entirely empty of food.

Kindling wood and coal were found in the dead woman's room.

She was last seen alive on Thursday. Her starving and freezing to death is believed to have been no fault of the neighbors or authorities, as the woman could have obtained food had she made her condition known. Her age was about 50.

Wedded on Christmas Day.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of James Rodie, Sr., on Abruyn-street, Ponckhockie, on Christmas afternoon. The contracting parties were Frank Reed Powley and Miss Anna Cameron Rodie, a daughter of Mr. Rodie. The Rev. I. Magee, D. D., Pastor of the Wurts-Street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The ushers were Walter P. Crane and Robert S. Rodie. The bride was attired in a rich gown of white faille Francaise en train. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The young couple crossed the Hudson River on the 7:25 ferry en route on a trip South.

Mistletoe Found in the Woods Near Here.

A. T. Clearwater, of Kingston, while horseback riding, the other day, found a mistletoe shrub growing upon an old cedar tree standing in a woods in a sheltered nook within three miles of the Court House, this City. The mistletoe shrub is rare in this part of the country.

The old story is again heard that a Kingston woman told a lady friend what success she had buying a Christmas present for her husband. "Why," said she, "men don't know how to buy things anyway. John is used to paying for his cigars six dollars a box. Do you know that I went to a cigar man and without beating him down much, he sold me a box for 12 shilling and a great deal bigger cigars than those John paid six dollars for?"

CHRISTMAS AFTERMATH.

SOME OF THE DOINGS IN THIS CITY BRIEFLY REVIEWED.

Excellent Choral Services in Various Churches—Christmas Trees and Gifts For Little Folks—In the Theatres And in Ball Rooms.

In December ring
Every day the chimes;
Loudly the gleemen sing
In the streets their merry rhymes.
Let us sing by the fire ever higher,
Sing them till the night expire.
—Longfellow.

The Christmas holiday was a happy one in this City. The weather was all that could be desired and the Christian homes in which no presents were given and received were few and far between. Never before in the history of this City was there so large a sale of Christmas presents reported, and never before were so many received and sent by mail and express. Dealers in poultry and meats, to use their own words, were "worked to death" in delivering their wares. There were many public amusements and many pleasant family reunions. The observance of Christmas was more general than ever known before. The absence of sleighing was fully compensated for by the superb weather and excellent wheeling. It was a notable Christmas in all respects.

How Christmas was spent in churches, in the Industrial Home, in theatres, ball rooms, etc., is told in the column and a half or so of matter that follows:

THE NIGHT AFTER CHRISTMAS.

'Twas the night after Christmas, when all through the house
Every soul was abed, and as still as a mouse;
Those stockings so lately St. Nicholas's care
Were emptied of all that was eatable there.
The darlings had duly been tucked in their beds,
With very full stomachs and pains in their heads.
I was dozing away in my new cotton cap,
And Nancy was rather far gone in a nap.
When out in the nursery there goes such a clatter,
I sprang out of bed, crying, "what is the matter?"
I flew to each bedside still half in a doze,
Tore open the curtains and threw off the clothes;
While the light of the taper served clearly to show
The piteous plight of those objects below.
For, what to the fond father's eyes should appear
But the pale little face of each sick little dear;
Each pet, having crammed itself full as a tick,
I knew in a moment, now felt like old Nick!
Their pulses were rapid, their breathing the same;
What their stomach rejected I'll mention by name;
Now turkey, now stuffing, plum pudding, of course,
And custards, and crullers, and cranberry sauce—
Before outraged nature all went to the wall—
Yes, lollypops, flapdoodle, great things and small;
Like pellets, which urchins from pop-guns let fly,
When figs, nuts and raisins, jam, jelly and pie,
Till each error of diet was brought to my view,
To the shame of mamma and of Santa Claus, too.
I turned from the sight, to my bedroom stepped back,
And brought out a vial marked Pulv. Ipecac.,
When my Nancy exclaimed—for their sufferings shocked her—
"Don't you think you had better, love, run for the doctor?"
I ran—and was scarcely back under my roof,
When I heard the sharp clatter of old Jalap's hoof;
I might say that I hardly had turned myself round,
When the doctor came into the room with a bound.
He was spattered with mud from his hats to his boots,
And the clothes he had on seemed the drollest of suits;
In his haste he'd put all quite awry on his back,
And he looked like John Falstaff all covered with sack.
His eyes, how they twinkled! had the doctor got merry?
His nose looked like Port and his breath smelt of Sherry;
He hadn't been shaved for a fortnight or so,
And the beard on his chin wasn't white as the snow.
But, inspecting their tongues, in despite of their teeth,
And drawing his watch from his waistcoat beneath,
He felt of each pulse, saying, "each little belly
Must get rid"—here he laughed—"of the rest of that jelly."
I gazed on each plump, chubby, sick little elf,
And groaned when he said so, in spite of myself.
But a wink of his eye, as he physicked dear Fred
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.
He didn't prescribe—but went straightway to work
And dosed all the rest—gave his trousers a jerk,
And adding directions while blowing his nose,
He buttoned his coat, from his chair he arose,
Then jumped in his gig, gave old Jalap a whistle,
And Jalap dashed off as if pricked by a thistle.
But the doctor exclaimed, ere he drove out of sight,
"They'll be well by to-morrow—good night, Jones, good night!"

AT THE INDUSTRIAL HOME.

It was a Merry Christmas at the Industrial Home, and if all those who sent of their abundance could have found time to have visited that excellent institution, yesterday, they would have been well repaid. The little ones were rendered very happy by the presents they received, and by the excellent fare provided for their Christmas dinner.

CHURCH ENTERTAINMENTS HELD.

The members of the Foxhall-Avenue A. M. E. Church partook of a turkey supper last night.

The members of the Sunday School of St. Peter's Church, enjoyed a Christmas Tree festival, in St. Peter's Hall, yesterday afternoon.

The entertainment given by the ladies of St. James M. E. Church, Christmas Eve, was interesting, successful and largely attended.

There was a large Christmas tree in the Livingston-Street Lutheran Church, on Monday evening. Each member of the Sunday School received a present.

A pleasant entertainment was given in the Albany-Avenue Baptist Church, Christmas Eve. A short literary and musical programme was rendered. Members of the Infant Class received gifts. Refreshments were served.

The interior of the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, last evening, presented a pleasing sight. Two large Christmas trees, handsomely trimmed and lighted, were to be seen loaded with presents for the members of the Sunday School. A literary and musical programme was rendered. Two of the recitations were given in the English language. There was a large attendance.

ENTERTAINMENTS YET TO BE GIVEN.

An entertainment will be given in the Fair-Street Reformed Church on Friday evening.

An organ concert will be given in the Fair-Street Reformed Church, Monday evening, January 14.

Clinton-Avenue M. E. Church Sunday School pupils will give an entertainment during the first week in January.

To-night a Christmas entertainment will be given in the Elmendorf-Street Presbyterian Church by the pupils of the Sunday School.

The Christmas tree festival of St. John's Sunday School, Kingston, will be held in the Church, on the evening of Holy Innocents' Day, Friday, December 28.

A POSTPONED ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment announced to having taken place in Clinton-Avenue M. E. Church on Christmas Eve was postponed until this evening.

THREE SUCCESSFUL FAIRS.

The fair of Rapid Hose Company, No. 1, of Rondout, was opened under auspicious circumstances, yesterday afternoon. In the evening there was a large attendance. Tables containing fancy articles, are arranged on either side of the hall, the space intervening being reserved for dancing. Lady friends of the organization presided at the tables, which were liberally patronized. The hall decorations are pleasing to the eye. The Rapids endeavored to make things pleasant for their guests and they succeeded. There are several prizes being competed for. There was lively voting for the firemen's prize of a plush banner and a gold watch for the most popular young lady. A handsome smoker's stand attracts attention, and many ballots were cast for it. A bed-room set will go to some lucky person. Louis Quentel was awarded a badge for selling the most tickets of admission to the fair, nearly 700. The last day of the fair will be December 31.

The fair of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rondout, will be opened to-night in St. Mary's Parochial School Hall and will be continued for two weeks. To-day Sisters of Charity and young ladies connected with the church arranged the last details of what promises to be one of the most successful fairs ever held by that church. The Rev. P. Prendergast, the Pastor, has interested himself in the matter and his presence will add to the pleasure of the event. There will be four booths where displays of fancy articles, many of which have been contributed, cannot fail to attract the eye of visitors. These booths will be in charge of the school children, members of the Society of St. Mary's, Children of Mary and St. Joseph. There will be a refreshment table near the stage at the head of the hall. Four young ladies of the parish will compete for a diamond ring, and a like number of gentlemen will strive for a prize of a gold watch. The hall is trimmed and festooned.

The fair of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Kingston, was opened auspiciously last evening. The fair is being held in St. Joseph's School building, corner of Fair and Bowery-streets. It will be continued every night this week, from 7:30 to 10:30, and perhaps a few evenings of next week. The rooms were so crowded last night that it required exertion to reach the tables. The tables are well stocked with fancy articles, children's toys, drums and many useful and ornamental articles. Among the special attractions are two gold watches and a diamond ring. The gold watches will be voted to two of the most popular gentlemen of the Church. The ring will be disposed of by chance. There are three tables and a refreshment room. At the Children of Mary's table Miss Eliza Nolan presides. She has a number of assistants. Mrs. J. Kiernan, Mrs. J. J. Albrecht and Mrs. J. Ring preside at the table of the Sacred Heart. Mrs. William Reynolds and Miss Mary O'Brien have charge of the refreshment table. Many articles were sold last night. A portion of the time was devoted to dancing. The floors were sufficiently cleared to give room to the dancers. This fair is for the purpose of raising money to reduce the church debt. Members of the congregation take great interest in it, and have furnished many articles. The Rev. Edward J. Conroy, Pastor of the Church, was present during a part of the evening and seemed well pleased with the success of the opening night.

OTHER CHRISTMAS GATHERINGS.

The members of the Rondout Quartette Club gathered around a heavily laden Christmas tree, in Englert's Hall, on Monday evening. The Society had a merry time.

Various other societies held pleasant gatherings.

IN THE THEATRES.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Fox-Kane and Professor Ransom, in Kingston Opera House, last evening, was not largely attended, and cannot be said to have been a success.

The Guy Brothers' Minstrels gave two excellent performances in Liscomb's Opera House, yesterday. Many of the "acts" were new, and all were above the average. It is a well balanced troupe, and was worthy of the patronage bestowed. The house was literally packed last night. Manager Liscomb should book more such shows.

BALLS LAST NIGHT.

The ball of the members of Weiner Hose Company, held in the Academy of Music, last night, was largely attended and enjoyable. A Committee from the Hobart Hose Company, of Hobart, Delaware County, attended.

Other balls held were largely attended.

PASTORS, PEOPLES AND CHURCHES.

The Father of the New-York Methodist Conference—Concerning Meetings, Etc.

The Rev. Isaac Peck, late of Flushing, L. I., is now Pastor of St. Paul's Church, Kinderhook.

On Sunday evening, the last of the present series of the Young People's prayer meetings in St. James Church, Kingston, will be held. Samuel D. Gibson will be leader, and the theme will be "Good Resolutions."

The Rev. P. C. Oakley, of Milton, Ulster County—who is known as the "Father" of the New-York Methodist Conference—in his early days set type beside one of the Harper Brothers, in New York City.

FATAL ACCIDENTS NOTED

BY CORRESPONDENTS OF THE "KINGSTON DAILY FREEMAN."

Two Brothers Killed on the D. & H. Railroad, Near Cooperstown Junction—A Man Named Vandemark Loses His Life, Etc.

"It is the unexpected that happens."

Correspondents of THE FREEMAN report accidents in Delaware and Ulster Counties and in this City as follows:

TWO BROTHERS KILLED.

The Oneonta correspondent of THE FREEMAN writes: On Monday, December 24, Henry and John VanWormer, two brothers, of the town of Maryland, Otsego County, were struck by a west-bound train on the Delaware & Hudson Railroad, about one mile below Cooperstown Junction, and instantly killed. The bodies were terribly mangled.

KILLED NEAR KERHONKSON.

Hiram Vandemark, of Kerkonkson, Ulster County, was at work near that village, yesterday, hoisting stone with a derrick on the Delaware & Hudson Canal. The "fall" of the derrick broke, allowing a large stone to fall on Vandermark. He was instantly killed.

OTHER MISHAPS REPORTED.

Mrs. Edward Merrihew, who resides on Washington-avenue, Kingston, while calling on a neighbor, accidentally fell down a staircase, and dislocated her shoulder, yesterday.

William Shay, a prominent resident of New-Hamburgh, fell from his carriage and was instantly killed on Monday. It is believed he was suffering from a stroke of apoplexy. The deceased is reported to have been worth from $50,000 to $60,000.

A smash up occurred on Albany-avenue, Kingston, yesterday afternoon. W. W. Hermance's wagon was run into by another vehicle. The rig of Hermance was overturned and he was thrown out. Mr. Hermance was rendered unconscious by the shock but soon recovered.

SHOT A TEAL ON THE HUDSON RIVER.

Rather an Unusual Capture Made by a Young Man While Hunting.

This forenoon Harry Coykendall, of Rondout, while hunting between cakes of ice in a boat on the Hudson River, captured a curiosity. He saw flying what he presumed to be a wild duck. He fired and the biped fell. The bird proved to be a teal, a web-footed water fowl nearly allied to the duck.

Teals are sometimes seen near streams in the Catskill Mountains, but it is seldom they are found looking for food on the Hudson River.

They are graceful flyers and dart into the water after a fish with lightning-like motion. The one shot by Mr. Coykendall is a fine specimen. Its feathers are of a bluish tint.

OTHER HUNTING AND FISHING STORIES

Albert Crawford caught 200 pounds of pickerel in the Wolf Pond, Sullivan County, in three days' time, recently.

A sucker was caught in the Schoharie Creek, at Gilboa, one day recently, that was 20 inches in length and weighed three and one-half pounds.

L. Somers, of Monticello, bagged a dozen partridges the other day without firing a shot. The birds were frozen to death by the recent cold snap, and Sullivan County hunters have reaped the benefit. The partridges were plump and said to be excellent eating.

A number of farmers in the vicinity of Windham have been greatly perplexed of late over a problem that until recently nobody in the neighborhood could solve. Night after night fowls would mysteriously disappear from barn yards and no trace be found of them anywhere. H. Kirtland, of Durham, was one of the heaviest losers, and though a man of over 70 years of age, he resolved to catch the thief. For two days and nights he kept watch on his coops. The third day he was about giving it up, when he saw a fox prowling around the premises. Reynard entered the coop and was just about pouncing on a fine, plump fowl, when Mr. Kirtland "went" for the depredator with a pitchfork. The fox was pinned to the ground and quickly dispatched. Three other foxes have been caught during the past week and now fowls are unmolested.

[From the New-Paltz Times.]

William H. Norton, of New-Paltz, owns one of the best fox hounds in Ulster County. Mr. Norton says the best place to find foxes is in the Tamarack swamp, north of Ohioville, after it is frozen over. A few days ago his hound followed a fox out of the swamp, and caught it before it had run a quarter of a mile. On a straight course and fresh track a fox hasn't foot enough to get away from said hound.

VARIOUS SPORTING MATTERS NOTED.

Newburgh's Athletic Tournament—Wrestling Match—$2,500 for a Colt.

Albany-avenue the past few days has been the scene of interesting contests.

A large deer was seen on the Pintler farm, in Sullivan County, one day recently.

On Christmas Day a number of Kingston City bicyclers took a spin on Albany and Union-avenues.

A five-year-old colt has been purchased at Pontiac, Mich., by the proprietors of the Hudson River Driving Park, at Poughkeepsie, for $2,500.

A wrestling match took place, Monday evening, in Newburgh, between Lucien Marc Christol, who traveled recently with Barnum's circus, where he performed the feat of lifting a horse, and Thomas Martin, of that City.

In reporting the recent Athletic Tournament at Newburgh, the Register says: "The running broad jump was won by Lewis Hoffman, who made 16 feet, nine inches, with John P. Fitzpatrick, second, and Henry R. Swivel, third."

NEWSPAPERS AND NEWSPAPER MEN.

Mourning in the Office of the "Wurtsboro Dispatch"—A Paper's New Dress.

The New-Paltz Times was printed on Monday, this week, on account of "the Christmas holiday."

The Poughkeepsie Sunday Courier gives evidence of the appreciation of its excellencies by appearing in a new dress at the close of the year 1888.

Hammond Lamont, a son of the Rev. Thomas Lamont, of Rondout, will be the new City Editor of the Albany Express, which is now the property of William Barnes, Jr.

The Wurtsboro Dispatch office is in mourning over the untimely fate of a turtle. It did not seem to be bright and agile as usual, a day or two ago, and it crawled for seclusion under the press. The turtle was gently lifted away, but unseen by its friend, the pressman, it crawled back again, and one of the rockers crushed it. The turtle was a pet with every one in the office, from the "devil" up, and grief was evinced when the news went around that "Jumbo" was no more. It was a wonderfully "knowing" turtle, and every morning it would protrude its head as if bowing in welcome to every arrival. One or two particular favorites in the office it would follow around as though seeking a "take," word or pat of commendation.

A Young Cook Uses Kerosene.

While alone in the house Bessie Van Wick, a young daughter of James C. Van Wick, of Cold Spring on-the-Hudson, was preparing the Christmas dinner, yesterday, the fire becoming low, Bessie in order to rekindle it poured kerosene on the embers. The house and all its contents, including $500 in money, were destroyed leaving her father homeless and penniless. There was no insurance.

NEAT AND CLEAR-HEADED MEN

Abhor the idea of an attack of catarrh as they do the bite of a poison snake. Yet this foul and most disgusting disease is very common. In its first stages it occasions very little discomfort and is therefore liable to be neglected. It is an inflammation of the lining membrane of the mouth, nose and throat. The glands and membranes secrete a fluid to keep the mouth, nose and eyes moist. From cold, debility and other causes this fluid is apt to be too copious; that is catarrh. Flowing from the nostrils it causes weak and watery eyes, irritates the nose, causes sneezing and finally the coughing up and expectoration of the offensive matter. These droppings will sometimes collect so rapidly as nearly to choke the person. Unless promptly treated catarrh lasts for years, producing dreadful results. The ordinary symptoms are pain in the eyes and in the forehead over the eyes; a dull heavy headache; obstruction of the nasal passages; discharges falling into the throat, and a moist, offensive breath. On the first sign of its appearance Dr. Brown's Sarsaparilla should be taken to purify the blood, for catarrh is a blood disease. In chronic cases an immediate cure must not be expected; but this great regulator of the blood will, if its use be continued, afford speedy relief and final cure. Hay fever, or cold in the head, a disease of summer chiefly, has similar symptoms and is cured by this remedy in the same way. It is important to remember that catarrh, being neglected, or arrested, gradually creeps down into the wind pipe and lungs and may end in incurable consumption. You may easily and cheaply prevent this terrible calamity by the use of
